Novices string crystals to make jewelry pieces

It was an evening of fine jewelry at the Back Mountain Memorial Library recently as Ms. Debbie Rodzink offered instruction on how to use Austrian crystals to make beautiful jewelry. Participants had the option of making either a pair of earrings for $8 or a bracelet for $15.
