

Yurko's game-ending shot is good

Jason Makowski flies toward the basket while Jason Simonovich tries to stop him during a DYB seventh and eighth grade game.

Following are results from November 23 games in the Dallas Youth Basketball League:

Eye Care Specialists 33
Smith Insurance 31
Aaron Yurko made a dramatic shot as time expired to lead Eye Care Specialists to a 33-31 victory over Smith Insurance Group, Inc. Yurko finished with 15 points to spark a furious fourth-quarter rally, while Eric Pincokski finished with eight points. Brian Drouse controlled the boards while Jack Tomko and Christian Wargo led the defense.

Zach Connolly led Smith Insurance with a game-high 19 points, while Donald Michalisin added six. Frankie Bevevino and Justin Sweeney sparked the defense.

Fieldhouse 41
UGI/Penn National 26
Brendan Baloh scored 12 points and Jonathan Wilson and Aleksey Gitelson added 11 each to lead Fieldhouse over UGI/Penn National Gas, 41-26.

Matt Ross led UGI/Penn in scoring while Anthony Brominski led the team in assists and Jonathan Sabatini anchored the defense.

Gattuso Group 35
Dallas Rotary 27
Tanner Gattuso and Jake Archer combined for 26 points as Gattuso Group Accountants and Consultants edged Dallas Rotary, 35-27. Ray Ostroski and Keith Gillette also scored key baskets for the Gattuso Group, while Ryan Martin led Dallas Rotary with eight points. Joey Bevevino, Adam Niznik, and Jamie Flores added six points each while Matt Harrison played fine defense.

Bishop Photo 40
DeLuca Law 30
Omar Nijmeh scored 18 points and Jesse Goode added 10 as Bishop Photo topped Vito DeLuca Law Offices, 40-30.

James Geiger and Mitch Kelly played outstanding defense for Photo, while Allen Fell led DeLuca Law Offices with a game-high 20 points. David Simpson added four points while Tim Elston and Joseph Fiorello played fine defense.

5TH & 6TH GRADE LEAGUE

Atty. Mike Bendick 26
BMT Community News 19
Abbie Bendick was high scorer with 18 points while Mallory Faux and Shelby Backus each had four points for the Attorney Bendick team.

Motorworld 20
Drs. Banas, Byron and Kim 14 (Double overtime)
Lia Barbacci led Motorworld with five points while Rachael Healey scored her second points all in the overtime for the winners.

Riders World 25

Concentrating as hard as he can, Danny Saba prepares to take a shot while being defended by Michael Boland during a DYB seventh and eighth grade game.

Blake Williams goes up for a shot during seventh and eighth grade action in the Dallas Youth Basketball League.

Pro HVAC 19
Gabrielle Volpetti had 14 points and Olivia Menning had six points while Nicole Rismondo scored four for Riders World. For PRO HVAC, Amy Bolton had eight points and Caroline Banas chipped in seen.

Pro HVAC 16
Drs. Banas, Byron and Kim 15
Caroline Banas had six points, Maria Ansilio had four while Alexis Pelchar and Maura Chappell each had two points to help Pro HVAC.

Atty. Mike Bendick 28
Arris Engineering 17
Abbie Bendick tossed in 16 points and Mallory Faux and Emiliya Zawatski each had six to lead the Atty. Bendick team.

BMT Community News 14
Motorworld 12
Kaley Polachek scored eight points and Danielle Walsh had four to lead the Community News team. For Motorworld, Courtney Hoats had six points, Megan Roberts had two points and also led all rebounders.

Riders World 28
Brace's Orchard 8
Gabrielle Volpetti scored 18 and Courtney Wagner had four to lead Riders World. Kylee Saba scored six points for Brace Orchards.

John Murray, right, attempts to get by Mark Michno during DYB seventh and eighth grade action.

PILGER GETS FIRST TURKEY

Dylan Pilger, 13, of Kunkle, shot his first turkey on November 28 while hunting with his father and his friend, Bill and Jake. The turkey weighed 17 pounds and had a 9-inch bear. Pilger is having the turkey mounted by Jeff May of Sweet Valley.

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL GOLF TEAM

Members of the 2008 Dallas High School golf team are Austin Smith, kneeling. From left, standing, Rich Wengrzynck, Andrew McCabe, Travis Debona, Mike Jayne, John Orlando and Tony Bevevino.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Basketball and cheerleading registration set

The Rock Recreation Center, 340 Carverton Rd., is accepting applications for its Upward Basketball Program which runs January 1 through March 28. The program is open to boys and girls in Pre-K through ninth grade. Early registration ends December 1 with the final registration and evaluation day being Saturday, Dec. 6.

For more information, call 696-2769 or visit www.rockrec.org.