Santa goes green at Wycallis

Everybody's going green these days and even Santa got into the act when students from the Wycallis Elementary School presented their holiday program, entitled "Santa Goes Green."

Horses at the R.E.A.-S.O.N. horse rescue farm in Center Moreland need support and donations from the community this holiday season.

Card donations aid horses

Horses housed at the R.E.A.-S.O.N. (Retired Equine Adoption Society of the Northeast) barn at Harveys Lake were the beneficiaries of a fund-raising effort by the organization where horse lovers from around Northeast Pennsylvania sent Christmas cards, Hanukah cards and season's greetings cards, all with $1 enclosed. The cards hung in the barn and the donations from the card drive will be used for hay to feed the horses throughout the upcoming winter months and towards spring fencing needs which should cost approximately $3,000.

Cards sent from supporters are pinned up in the stalls at the R.E.A.S.O.N. farm in Center Moreland.
