

JD Barrett leads Coon Industries to first DYB win

3rd & 4th GRADE BOYS

Coon Industries 16
Orthopedic Consultants 14
Coon Industries picked up its first win of the season with a 16-14 victory over Orthopedic Consultants.

Leading Coon Industries' offense was JD Barrett with 12 points, Evan McClain and Michael Krakowski each added two points. Their defense was anchored by Kyle Besecker, Jacob Besecker and Matthew Dillon.

Gattuso Group 16
Gordon Long 6

Gordon Long was defeated by Gattuso Group, 16-6.

Nick Kocher and David Schuster played tough defense. Chris Murray led the offense with four points while Brody Strickland added the other 2 points.

Deluca Law 18
Grasshopper Lawns 18

Deluca Law defeated Grasshopper Lawns, 18-8. Leading the way for Deluca Law was Nico Deluca with 12 points, Collin Pertl with four points and Hunter Resavage with two points. Mitch Winters played well on defense.

Drs. Kovalick 23

Pizza Perfect 14

Drs. Kovalick defeated Pizza Perfect, 23-14. The doctors were led by Lee Eckert with 11 points. Andrew Kovalick, Cole Wyfels and Matthew Magnotta provided strong pressure defense.

Belrick Corp. 25
Frontier 10

Belrick Corporation defeated Frontier Communications, 25-10. Belrick's offense was led by Jason Anderson and Paul Zabloutney with 10 points each. John Adams and Jake Weiland anchored Belrick's defense.

Frontier's offense was led by

Malik Kaleta and Michael Mesko. Edward Zochowsky and David Chopyak played great defensively.

5th & 6th GRADE GIRLS

Arris Engineering 28
Motorworld 21

Talia Szalkowski tossed in a game-high 22 points to lead Arris over Motorworld, 28-21. Nicole Wren scored four points while Amanda Schwerdtman and Stephanie Rineheimer led the rebounding department.

For Motorworld, Courtney Hoates and Megan Roberts had six points each, Catherin Dillon had four points and Alyssa Parvante led a strong defense.

Riders World 23
Brace Orchard 6

Gabbie Volpetti had 10 points, Courtney Wagner and Allison Rismondo had four each to lead Riders World to a 23-6 drubbing of Brace Orchard. Olivia Mennig led the way on the defensive side.

For the Brace team, Brielle Brace had four points and Sadie Trudgen had two. Milan Novak and Janelle Sherman led in rebounds and assists.

Community News 24

Pro HVAC 14

Kaley Polachek was game high scorer with 14 points, Katie Kravitsky had eight and Danielle Walsh added a bucket to lead the Back Mountain Community News team to a 24-14 victory over Pro HVAC.

Pro HVAC was led by Caroline Banas with eight points and Amy Bolton with four. Alexas Pelchar starred on defense for the HVAC team.

Bendick Law 19
Drs. Banas, Byron & Kim 8

See DYB, Page 10

Playing donkey ball

The annual donkey basketball game was held at Lake-Lehman High School with proceeds being used to fund the senior class trip to Washington, D.C. Richard Morgan is senior class advisor.

Cody Lamoreaux tries his darndest to move down-court.

JONATHAN J. JUKA PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Above: Leigh Mulhern makes a shot from her donkey.
Left: James Morissey tries his best to stay on his donkey.

DYB HOLDS FOURTH GRADE SKILLS COMPETITION

The Dallas Youth Basketball fourth graders held their annual skills competition on Wednesday, Jan 21. Winners for each competition are as follows: Dalton Gattuso, first place, free throws; Colby Jimmy, second place, free throws; Paul Roman, third place, free throws; Lee Eckert, first place, layup competition; Nico Deluca, second place, layup competition; and Jason Anderson, third place, layup competition. Shown here, from left, are Jason Anderson, Lee Eckert, Nico DeLuca, Paul Roman, Dalton Gattuso and Colby Jimmie.

SKAMMER RECEIVES GYMNASTICS AWARD

Sara Skammer recently placed first All-Around, Level 10, at the Parkettes Invitational Gymnastics meet in Allentown with a score of 36.975. She also received individual silver medals on uneven bars and beam and a third-place medal on floor exercise with a score of 9.35. Skammer, daughter of Ruth and Steve Skammer of Dallas, is a member of the United Sports Academy in Dunmore.

DMS lady cagers still undefeated

Dallas Middle School girls basketball teams remained undefeated after action during January 24 and 25.

The Dallas seventh grade team defeated Tunkhannock, 38-10, behind the hot hand of Stephanie Cybulski who scored eight points to lead the Lady Mountaineers. Vanessa Parsons, Katy Comitz and Sam Missal each had six points while Taylor Kelley and Abbey Berger each chipped in with four points and Maggie Midheal had two points.

The Dallas seventh grade team also defeated Plains/Solomon, 38-6. Leading the scoring for Dallas was Michelle Thompson with 10 points followed by Jenny Cave, Vanessa Parsons and Stephanie Cybulski with four each. Taylor Kelley, Abbey Berger, Katy Comitz, Kelly Anderson, Sam Missle and Kayla Gleco all had two points.

The eighth grade team defeated Tunkhannock, 46-10, behind a 10-point effort from Ashley Dunbar. Scoring eight points each in the winning effort were Madline Mulhern, Tanner Englehart and Marlee Nelson. Rachel Olszewski added five points followed by Jess Hiscox with four points and Liz Kravitz with two.

The eighth grade team also defeated Plains/Solomon, 33-6, behind a 10-point scoring effort from Tanner Englehart. Adding six points each were Ashley Dunbar and Rachel Olszewski. Alyssa Menzel had three while Madline Mulhern, Cora Pricher, Jess Hiscox and Liz Kravitz all chipped in two points each.