Looking for the Right Job for You?

In this economy the "right one" may not be a job at all. Before you look for a new job you might want to stop and think...

The average person spends most of their life trading their time for money, working a plan for someone else's success. It is successful business owners, not employees, who obtain financial independence and time freedom.

In fact, with the volatile state of the Economy, rising costs of living, job cuts, and stiffer competition for good paying jobs, many people are struggling just to meet their basic financial needs.

Take control of your future now! Start your OWN business!!

The timing has never been better. While many major corporations are going out of business, Market America continues to experience record growth! We are creating the Economy of the Future!

Do you have the desire to be a successful business owner but don't know where to begin? Don't have thousands of dollars for start up costs? Concerned about the risks involved with starting a business?

Market America's UnFranchise Business Development System offers anyone willing to follow a proven business plan the opportunity to gain financial independence! You can build your business by specializing in one or more billion dollar industries. There are no prohibitive franchise fees or territorial restrictions, and comprehensive training is available. You can start your new business working part time from home.

For more information, see us at the career fair or call Independent Market America Distributors and Business Development Specialists,
