

GOH School to host open house

Gate of Heaven School in Dallas is hosting a Spring Mini-Carnival and Open House from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 21, in the school gym.

Prospective pre-school and elementary students, ages 3 through 7 years, are welcome to attend. The event is designed to offer newcomers an overview of and warm welcome to the school.

Teachers, administrators, parents and current students will be on hand to greet visitors, answer questions and provide tours of the Gate of Heaven campus. The "GOH School Gator" will also be available to greet children.

Children will play mini-carnival games, win prizes and food/drinks will be served. A coloring contest will be held for prospective students and families will be eligible to win a flat-screen TV. Winners will be announced on the Gate of Heaven School Web site at www.gohschool.com.

For more information about the event, call the school at 675-6566 or contact Mary Lynn Pizzolato, chairperson, at mlpizz@epix.net.

Bowling event will benefit Big Brothers/Sisters

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of the Bridge is looking for individuals to form teams to bowl at its annual fundraiser, "Bowl For Kids' Sake," slated for March 28 at Shadowbrook Lanes.

Teams are made up of four to six individuals who are asked to solicit pledges to benefit Big Brothers/Big Sisters. Any bowler raising $50 or more will receive a complimentary "Bowl For Kids' Sake" t-shirt and their name will be entered into a drawing for a big-screen television.

The more money bowlers raise, the more prizes they are eligible to receive. The bowler raising the most money in the "Bowl For Kids' Sake" campaign will receive a "Get Away" vacation.

Volunteers Tony Wisnosky, left, and Bobby Zampetti, of Tunkhannock, practice their bowling swings in preparation for "Bowl For Kids' Sake" at Shadowbrook Lanes on Saturday, March 28. Wisnosky's Tiger House students bowl annually as a team and Zampetti serves as announcer/emcee.

Businesses interested in supporting the event may do so by becoming a corporate sponsor by donating $100 or $250. Businesses that sponsor a single lane will have their business name on a 24" x 36" sign placed at the end of the alley over the lane sponsored. "Group of Lane Sponsors" will receive a banner to be hung over the lanes sponsored. For more information, contact Big Brothers/Big Sisters of The Bridge at 1-800-955-4376 or log on to bbbswb.org.
