GO FIGURE! by Linda Thistle

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, from left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

Arithmetic puzzle grid with numbers 15, 20, 16, 27, 1 and arithmetic signs.

Elizabeth Martin seeking Dallas Township supervisor position

Dallas Township resident Elizabeth Martin has announced her intention to run in the upcoming election as a candidate for Dallas Township Supervisor. She will run as an independent Democrat. A life-long resident of the Back Mountain and a 1976 Dallas High School graduate, Martin attended Misericordia University and Luzerne County Community College. She currently resides in the township with her husband, Bob, and son, Robert, Jr. Bob is the owner of Modern Nursery Tree Service, Dallas and Robert, Jr. is a student at Gate of Heaven School, Dallas. Having been employed for six years as a reporter and photographer for the Suburban News, Sweet Valley, Martin is now a part-time staff writer and editor for The Independent magazine, of Kingston, and part-time office manager for Modern Nursery Tree Service. She also volunteers for a number of local organizations, including Back Mountain Business Association Board of Directors, Dallas Harvest Festival co-chairman, the Brass Ring Fund Committee and is a founding member of the Back Mountain Arts Association Board of Directors. The key issues of Martin's campaign include actively addressing the issues associated with rampant development in the Back Mountain and its effects on traffic congestion and storm water run-off and flooding in the region and the need for and many benefits of regional cooperation.

NEWS

Coverage Area: The Dallas Post covers the Back Mountain community which includes the Dallas and Lake-Lehman school districts. We try to get to as many events as possible, but staff and space limitations make it impossible to cover everything.
