Seniors who will be honored are Andrea Butchko, Loyalville; Matthew Boyle, Shavertown; James Dalkiewicz, Shavertown; Kayla Fine, Sweet Valley; Bryan Poepperling, Shavertown; Kallie Root, Dallas; Michael Ryan, Lehman Township; Catherine

Sullivan, Lehman; John Sweeney, Shavertown; and Natasha Udzella, Bloomingdale.

Speakers for this year's event are Jim McGovern, superintendent of the Lake-Lehman School District; and State Rep. Karen Boback, who has also been a GFWC Harveys Lake member for over 25 years.

According to GFWC Harveys Lake honorary members, the event started over 40 years ago as a "Lake-Lehman Girl of the Month" program. One Lake-Lehman senior girl was honored each month the club met and the girl's family was also invited to attend the program. The program eventually evolved into honoring the top 10 senior girls once per year.

Over 15 years ago, club members decided to also include boys in the program, which eventually turned into a night to honor the top 10 seniors of Lake-Lehman Junior/Senior High School and to recognize community leaders from Harveys Lake.

Darlene Williams and Tina Urban serve as event coordinators for this year's community night. The public is invited to attend.
