Locals in 'Lucky Stiff' April 2-4

The Misericordia Players will take to the stage for the rousing musical comedy, "Lucky Stiff," on April 2-4 at the university's newly-refurbished Lemmond Theater at Walsh Hall.

The zany, offbeat musical adaptation of the novel, "The Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo," was composed by Stephen Flaherty. The hilarious murder mystery farce, reminiscent of the movie "Weekend at Bernie's," centers around an unassuming English shoe salesman, Harry Witherspoon, who is forced to take the corpse of his recently-murdered Atlantic City croupier uncle on a weeklong vacation to Monte Carlo. Should he succeed, he stands to inherit $6 million. If not, the money goes to the Universal Dog Home of Brooklyn.
