

Students at Wycallis Elementary School are mesmerized by guest readers at a Family Reading Night.

Reading by celebrities

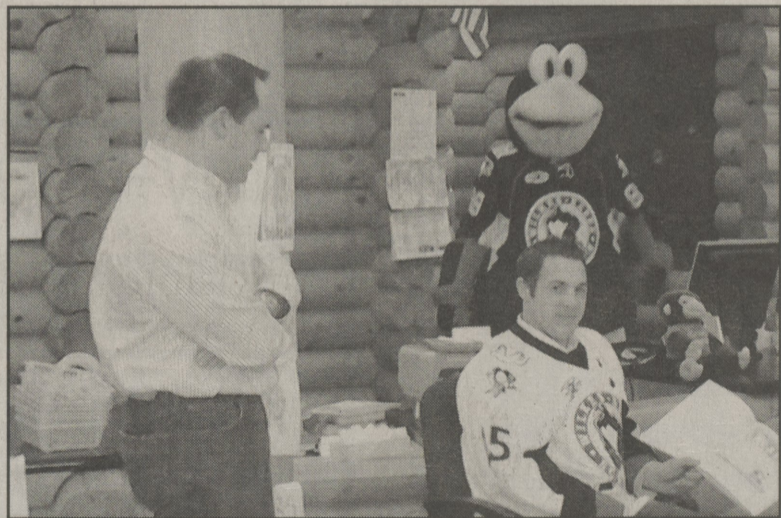

It wasn't hard for readers at the Wycallis Elementary School PTO-sponsored Family Reading Night to hold the attention of students in the school library. Officer Frank Ziegler of the Kingston Township Police Department, Eleana Arnaud of the Dallas High School soccer team, and Scott Succio, Dave Gove and Tux from the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins entertained about 50 students and their parents at the event.

Kingston Township Police Officer Frank Ziegler took time from his busy schedule to read to students at Wycallis Elementary School.

Eleana Arnaud of the Dallas High School soccer team enjoys reading to students at Wycallis Elementary School as much as the students love listening to her.

Sisters named winners of 2009 Jefferson Award

Sisters Gina Poceschi Boyle, of Sweet Valley, and Jacqui Poceschi Mosley, of Laurel Run, were named recipients of the 2009 Jefferson Award for the greater Luzerne County region at a luncheon held April 20 at the Woodlands Inn & Resort.

The sisters started the Fallen Officers Remembered organization after their brother, Rodney Poceschi, a member of the Virginia Beach Special Operations Unit, was shot and killed in the line of duty. Among the charity's endeavors are raising funds to provide scholarships to criminal justice students and bullet-proof vests to local police officers who don't have one or have an outdated or improperly fitting one.

In less than six years, Boyle, 43, and Mosley, 41, have raised $100,000 and donated 76 fitted vests to officers with departments throughout Luzerne, Lackawanna and Columbia counties.
