

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

Bandits' defender Owen Morgan (No. 17) keeps the ball from the Palmer Township team.

Bandits come home

The Back Mountain Bandits lacrosse team suffered yet another loss when it lost, 8-1, to Palmer Township in its first home game of the season.

Despite a great effort from Bandits' attackers Ryan Cohen, Keith Gilette, Luke Yaple and Connor Duffy, the Bandits were down, 6-1, at the halfway mark after Duncan Brieg scored for the locals late in the second quarter.

Middies Ian Evans, Stone Mannello, Justin Hitchins, RJ Driscoll, Justin Phillips, Corey Metz, Ricky Morgan and Duncan Brieg kept the Bandits in the game.

The defenders of Louis Parente, Noah Mirro, Connor Switzer, AJ Spears, Xavier Barber and Owen Morgan helped defend the goal with the Bandits' goalie Michael Golden.

Middle Ricky Morgan (No. 18) breaks away for the Bandits.

Dallas girls get 4-0 win

It was a scorcher of a day but the Lady Mountaineers of Dallas kept their cool during a softball match against Hazleton Monday afternoon at Dallas. Kristan Baker pitched all seven innings, striking out 11 and allowing only one walk and one hit to lead Dallas to a 4-0 win. Sara Kohli had a two-run single for the Mountaineers while Sarah Konopki added a run-scoring single.

Mary Kate Osick (No. 18) slips safely into third base for Dallas.

Kristan Baker pitches for the Dallas High School girls softball team.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/
FOR THE DALLAS POST

Lady Mountaineer Erin Bellas arrives safely at home plate.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Stephanie Ashley advances the ball for the Lady Mountaineers soccer team.

Lady Mounts' kickers win

The Lady Mountaineers of Dallas High School took on conference rivals, Wyoming Seminary, in a soccer match Monday afternoon at Dallas. The Dallas girls clinched a District 2 playoff berth in Class 2A and finished the regular season with an 8-2 slate.

After a scoreless first half, Dallas, led by three tallies from Ellen Arnaud and one each from Colleen McDonald and Tara Connors, erupted for five in the final 40 minutes to notch the win.

Shelby Scharff heads the ball for Dallas.

Goalie Sarah Flannery defends for Dallas.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Eric Fitzgen returns service for the Dallas tennis team.

DHS netmen host Hazleton

The Dallas High School tennis team played host to Hazleton Monday afternoon.

Above, Mountaineer Alex Slocum shows off his backhand form on the tennis court. At left, Tony Bevevino tackles a backhand on the tennis court for the Dallas High School team.