

Saying goodbye after 155 years

Members of the 155-year-old Carverton United Methodist Church bid farewell to their church building on Sunday, April 26, as the final service was held at the church. The building is now for sale.

Former pastors joining members of the congregation at the final service included Rev. Donald Schalk, Mr. Robb Henderson, Mr. Alan Cease, Rev. Jackson Cox and Mrs. Margaret Reid, wife of the late Rev. William Reid.

The Carverton United Methodist Church was part of the Carverton Charge which includes the Orange United Methodist Church and the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church. Sunday services will continue to be held at 10 a.m. at the Orange church and at 11 a.m. at the Mt. Zion church.

GEISINGER NORTHEAST

In celebration of National Nurses Week, May 6 – 12, Geisinger salutes the extraordinary passion and unwavering commitment of its nursing staff. Nursing is both an art and a science – and Geisinger nurses personify both traits through their steadfast dedication to excellence in patient care and their compassion at the bedside. So Northeast Pennsylvania residents can rest easy knowing that exceptional nursing care is available where you live, work and play. Now that's peace of mind.

If you know a Geisinger nurse who has touched your life, we'd like to hear from you. E-mail us at GHSNurses@geisinger.edu
