

Lake-Lehman Class of 2009 graduates

The 51st annual commencement of Lake-Lehman High School was held at 6 p.m. on Friday, June 12, at Edward H. Edwards Stadium in Lehman.

Class officers: Neil Dymond Popko, president; Joshua Michael Perry, vice-president; Bryan Allen Poepferling, secretary; and John Michael Sweeney, treasurer.

Student Council: Leanne Grabski, president; Leigh Mulhern, secretary; Leslee Everett, secretary; Andrea Vutchko, treasurer; Amanda

Austin, James Dalkiewicz, Christoffer Dunsmuir, Molly Murphy, Catherine Sullivan, John Sweeney, Tiffany Thomas, Jaime Wesley and Lindsey Williams, members.

Class flower: Rose
Class colors: Black and gold

Class motto: "Remember yesterday, dream about tomorrow, but live today."

Class song: "Only the Good Die Young" by Billy Joel

Soon-to-be graduates begin to fill seats at Edward Edwards Stadium prior to Lake-Lehman commencement ceremonies.

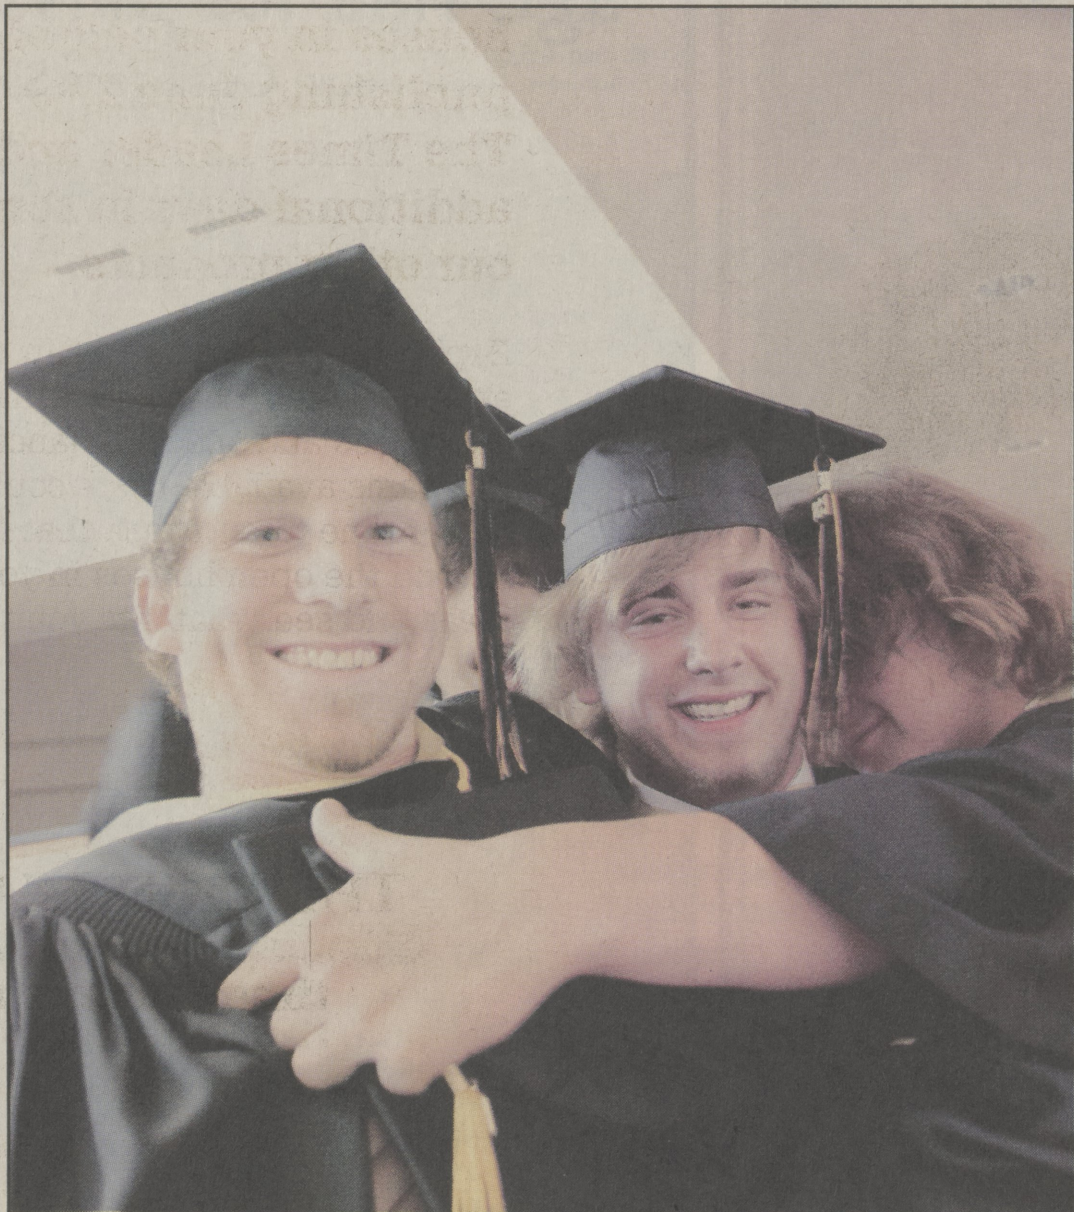

Mike Manqanella's telephone conversation is too important to end it while Megan Malkemes adjusts his board.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Molly Murphy shakes up her tassels in anticipation of graduation.

ABOVE: Celebrating with a special volleyball handshake they developed during the school year are Zack Lofthouse, left, and Doug Sprau.

LEFT: These graduates know their going to miss each other now that their high school days are over. From left, are Josh Wilkey, Casey Robbins and Brett Steele.