Abbey Zurad of Shavertown is awarded 2009 Kay Wilson Memorial Scholarship

The 2009 Kay Wilson Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Abbey Zurad, 17, of Shavertown.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Zurad, Zurad is a graduate of Holy Redeemer High School in Wilkes Barre and will attend the University of Pittsburgh this fall to become a registered nurse.

Very active in community projects, Zurad volunteers with Summer Splash, a two-week art and recreation program for young children. She also tutors children throughout the school year and served as a peer tutor in high school.

Last summer, Zurad was a shadowing student at Tyler Memorial Hospital, Tunkhannock where she had the opportunity to learn more about the nursing profession. She also works part-time at her father's medical office.

The Kay Wilson Memorial Scholarship is awarded each year to a child or grandchild of a Tyler employee or physician planning a career in healthcare. Mrs. Wilson was a registered nurse at Tyler for over three decades.

Woody Wilson, left, son of the late Kay Wilson and his father, Harry, congratulate Abbey Zurad, of Shavertown, the 2009 recipient of the Kay Wilson Memorial Scholarship. The scholarship is awarded each year to a high school graduate planning a career in healthcare.
