MATTHEW BOYLE RECEIVES BOOK SCHOLARSHIP

The Dallas Kiwanis Club presented a book scholarship to Matthew Boyle of Lake-Lehman High School at a recent meeting at Pickett's Charge Restaurant. Boyle will attend Wilkes University to study environmental engineering. At Lake-Lehman, he was a member of the Key Club and captain of the basketball and track teams. He was also a member of Junior Leadership, helped organize a revitalization of the Catherine McAuley House and was a volunteer for the Trails to Trails Project. From left, are Lloyd Ryman, scholarship program, chairman; Chris Boyle, father; Matt Boyle, Sandy Boyle, mother; and Charles Kishbaugh, president, Dallas Kiwanis Club.

PEOPLE BRIEFS

Bachman named commonwealth speaker

Bill Bachman, Communications Arts and Sciences instructor at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, was recently selected to serve as a Commonwealth Speaker for the Pennsylvania Humanities Council for the upcoming 2010-2011 year of the program. Beginning in January 2010,

Bachman will tour Pennsylvania and offer an abbreviated version of his "Frances Slocum: Child of Two Americas" program, opening the floor to discussion and exchange with the audience. The film, which Bachman wrote, directed and co-produced, highlights the life of the real Frances Slocum, a young Quaker girl abducted from her family in Wilkes-Barre on November 2, 1778.
