Resurfacing work provides smooth ride

By EILEN GODIN
Dallas Post Correspondent

Lake Township supervisors awarded a road resurfacing bid, announced a new meeting schedule and new hours for the township secretary at their meeting Wednesday night.

A smoother ride will be the outcome of road work on a mile and a half stretch of Loyalville Road. To help conserve expenses, township road crews are repairing the road base and preparing the road for paving.

Supervisors received four sealed bids for resurfacing of the road. Bids were received from: Poppel Construction Inc., Lalfin, $137,822.50; American Asphalt, Shavertown, $134,740; Pikes Creek Site Contractors, Sweet Valley, $129,660.15; and Slusser Brothers, Pittston, $129,514.88.

Supervisors unanimously awarded the bid to Slusser Brothers and work will begin next month.

Chairman Lonnie Piatt said the expense to have the township road crew preparing the road for paving was budgeted. The cost of resurfacing the road will be covered through funds from the Community Development Grant and through State Aide for Highway Resurfacing.

Bids will be opened next month for work to Wesley Road and Bear Hollow Road.

SARAH

According to Kelly, she and Curran were hoping to raise about $5,000 from "Stand by Sarah." Instead, the event raised $17,000 in one evening and additional donations have brought the total to almost $25,000.

"I have never, ever received such payment as how it felt to be there that night," Kelly said. "The support for Sarah...literally at the Jazz Cafe there was a line snaked out to the parking lot to get into this place. We still have such a strong beating heart of generosity in North-eastern Pennsylvania despite all of the headlines. I think we're so fortunate to live in this area."

The Flannerys were equally surprised at the turnout and support from "Stand by Sarah."

"We certainly never expected anything like that," Liz Flannery said. "When Cindy said she wanted to do something, I was expecting maybe something in her shop, like a basket raffle...It was so overwhelming

"The outlook is very positive. My focus has always been positive, not to be negative. You don't want to go down a dark path unless you have to."

the support and the community outpouring."

Liz Flannery says many of Sarah's classmates from Dallas attended the event, as well as some people the family did not even know. One woman, whose name Liz Flannery could not immediately recall, said she had battled Thymoma 36 years ago and survived. The woman offered hope and words of support as well as a card and an angel for Sarah.

"It was very heartwarming and emotionally a big uplift because certainly we waited almost three months for this surgery and, at times, it's just been an emotional rollercoaster," Liz Flannery said.
