

There's more to football than just the game

The Dallas football team is off to a great start, already winning two games in as many outings and equaling its entire victory record of last season. The Back Mountain team recorded its second win of the season Saturday afternoon by defeating Coughlin, 14-6, on its home field. There are a lot of reasons for those two wins so far – coaching, players' abilities, team unity – but, most of all, school spirit. That's right – school spirit! Dallas fans are behind their team all the way.

Fans and alumni cheer for the Mountaineers.
