'Thank You Reception' held at Meadows

A "Thank You Reception" was held in the pavilion of the Meadows Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for Century Club members of The Meadows Annual Appeal.

Guests enjoyed an evening of delicious finger foods catered by CURA Hospitality as well as entertainment by the "Precious Gems."

The Meadows Annual Appeal helps to fund special equipment and large renovation projects that benefit residents of the nursing and personal care centers on the Meadows campus.

Quiltmaker lectures at Dietrich Theater Oct. 3

This year as part of Tunkhannock's eighth annual Airing of the Quilts, Edyta Sitar, an internationally known quiltmaker and designer will bring her illustrated lecture, "Reasons for Quilting," to the Dietrich Theater at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3.

Sitar's colorful presentation highlights the various factors - ranging from historical and political events to family occasions that have inspired generations of quilters. She shares fascinating quilt history as well as heart-warming personal stories.

Tickets for "Reasons for Quilting" are $5 each and can be purchased in advance at the Dietrich Theater or at the door.

Following her lecture, Sitar will be at Endless Mountain Quiltworks in Towne Plaza, Tunkhannock, to meet quilters and autograph copies of her book. The shop will also stock a selection of her patterns and fabrics. Her current collection, "Close to My Heart," designed for Moda Fabrics, comprises a unique mix of traditional prints and coordinating batiks.

An additional array of Edyta's quilts will be part of an indoor quilt show at the Tunkhannock Middle School. Also featured at the Middle School will be watercolorist Diane Phalen with a selection from her popular "American Quilt" series of original art, prints and note cards.

Valentine's Giving Tree program extended; benefits the Back Mountain Food Pantry

Elva Valentine of Valentine's Jewelry, Route 309, Dallas announces an extension, until the end of September, of an opportunity for the public to support the Back Mountain Food Pantry with a donation to Valentine's Giving Tree.

Local charities will receive donations between October 1 and December 31.

A donation of $20 or more enables the donor to choose a gift from the tree valued from $20 to $50.

Ron Thomas of American Gold Buying Inc. matched Valentine's $200 donation to the food pantry in August and will do so again during the month of September up to a total of $500.

Elva Valentine, left, of Valentine's Jewelers and Ron Thomas, of American Gold Buying Inc. invite everyone to stop by and contribute to a fundraiser that supports local charities.

Know A Health Care Hero?

Nominate them for The Times Leader Health Care Hero Award.

Do you know people in the health care field who have touched the lives of others? People who go beyond all expectations to care for others in the community? It's time to recognize them for all their efforts and let them know how much they're appreciated. Nominate an inspiring individual for The Times Leader's Health Care Heroes Award.

On November 5, 2009 The Times Leader will honor 20 of these outstanding health care professionals at the Mohegan Sun in a special awards ceremony.

Take the time to nominate your HERO. It could be a nurse, doctor, physical therapist or anyone in the health care field who truly has made a difference.

To nominate:

Complete the nomination form and on a separate sheet of paper, write why you are nominating this person for a Health Care Hero Award. Mail both the form and your essay to: Health Care Heroes, The Times Leader, 15 N. Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711.
