Bobby Zampetti to assume full-time role at agency

Dallas, PA, August 25 - As of 8 September, Bobby Zampetti will advance to a full-time role as CEO of the firm he owns with a mission to develop the Cyber Business Area.

Bobby worked part-time at the firm since 1987. He was previously employed by Tunkhannock Area School District as a music teacher.

Bobby is a communications professional with more than 30 years experience in public relations. He worked long and hard going to school nights, weekends, summers to earn a Bachelor of Arts Mass Communications and Media Technologies degree from King's College.

"This is a very exciting time for me - developing the Cyber Business Area at our advertising agency", said Zampetti.

Bobby is the well-known host of The Bobby Z Show on radio where he received hands-on experience writing, and recording commercials.

Bobby's on-air radio voice appeals to the dominant Baby Boomers audience.

For more information call (570) 298-2614, write to bobby.zampetti@epix.net, or visit bobbyz.net on the web.
