

Black Knights hockey team shuts out Dallas, 3-0

The Black Knights of Lake-Lehman shut out their field hockey rivals, Dallas, 3-0, as Nikki Sutliff and Selena Adamshick both picked up a goal and an assist. Nikki Snyder's first-half goal stood up as the game winner as Lake-Lehman held Dallas to just one shot.

Bobcats beat Ed-Lark, 28-0, to end regular season with 8-1 slate

A TEAM

Back Mountain 28
Ed-Lark 0

The Back Mountain Bobcat A Team finished its season with a 28-0 win over Ed-Lark to improve its record to 8-1 for the year.

The offensive line led by Cody Long, Evan May, Matt Durling, Adam Simmonette, Brian Durling, CJ McCauley, Jstus Schultz, Joey Vigil and Tyler Brobst had another great game, dominating the line of scrimmage. The running backs put up 28 points and had 200 yards rushing.

Dylan Pilger, Willy Mucha, Justin Bulter and Brian Durling each had a touchdown for Back Mountain and Justin Bulter and PJ Konnick each added a 2-point conversion. Angelo Baltier, Elija Vigil, Joey Vigil and Paul Ciaccia each had some great runs for the Bobcats.

The defense played a solid game, holding the Hurricanes scoreless. The defensive line, led by Paul Ciaccia, Austin Parry, Randy Zacharais, PJ Konnick, Elija Vigil, Justus Schultz and Brian Durling, kept pressure on the quarterback. The defensive backs, led by Joey Vigil, Angelo Baltier, Evan May, Dylan Pilger, Willy Mucha, CJ McCauley and Justin Bulter, did a good job of keeping the backs in from of them and out of the endzone.

Willy Mucha and "Stick" each had an interception for Back Mountain while Elija Vigil recovered a fumble for the Bobcats.

B TEAM

Ed-Lark 30
Back Mountain 0

Despite a great effort by the Back Mountain B team, the Bobcats came up on the short end of a 30-0 score against Ed-Lark.

The offense, led by Adam Rosencrance, Connor Kerkowski, Anthony Grandenitti, Devin Dickson, Owen Morgan and Chris Allen, did a great job in protecting the backfield of Stone Mannello, Corbin Holcomb, Jack Tomko, Cameron Brennan and RJ Driscoll.

Great defense was led by Zack Haddle, Erik Sweppenheiser, Zack Gabel, Eric George, Art Coolbaugh, Marcus Steele and Bob Oakley.

Kingston Township 14
Exeter 8

The Kingston Township Raiders B Team improved to 7-2 with a 14-8 victory over a very tough Exeter Panthers team.

The offense was led by quarterback Ricky Morgan, filling in for an injured Ryan Martin. Morgan was solid throughout the game and was supported with a fine running effort by the starting backfield consisting of Bret Storrs, Connor Motley and Tanner Gattuso. All three contributed to a consistently successful running effort all afternoon.

This effort was made possible by the blocking efforts of Mitch Kelly, David Edwards, Mike Golden, Nick Mathers and Kyle Piskorik. The Panthers pulled ahead, 8-0, in the second quarter but the Raiders would not be denied the victory; they fought back to win. This effort was led by Bret Storrs with two touchdowns, although the whole backfield contributed to moving the ball downfield.

Once the Panthers had scored, a solid defensive effort by the Raiders did not allow additional points. The Panthers' running game was kept in check in the second half by a tough Raiders defensive line anchored by David Edwards, Mitch Kelly, Jason Culp and Michael Golden.

Defensive ends Conor Motley and Christian Roberts prevented the Panthers from breaking the outside on their runs. As a result, the Panthers attempted to move the ball by passing. Once again, the Raiders' defense stood up to the challenge. There was excellent cornerback play by the Mathers brothers, Nick and Matthew. Also, a solid effort was turned in by safety Peter Capitano, who ended up with two interceptions for the afternoon.

C TEAM

Back Mountain 6
Ed-Lark 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats C team was victorious on Sunday against Ed-Lark ending its season with a 5-4 record.
