Homespun Holiday Craft Show slated for November 1 at Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus

Arts at Hayfield will celebrate its 20th Homespun Holiday craft show from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 1, at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

Homespun Holiday will feature many vendors offering handmade jewelry, pottery, dolls, knitted items, candles, art and a wealth of other crafts and gifts. Brunch and lunch will be available in the Café Commons from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m., featuring a traditional turkey meal with all the trimmings.

A requested $2 donation for adults supports an annual achievement award to an arts-oriented Penn State Wilkes-Barre student, donations to public performances offered by the FM Kirby Center, Misericordia University, the Fine Arts Musical Program at the Shavertown United Methodist Church and to Great Books at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

PEOPLE BRIEFS

Wilson graduates from Syracuse University

Matthew Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, of Dallas, recently graduate from the Martin J. Whitman School of Management at Syracuse University with a dual major in finance and supply chain management.

During his junior and senior years, Wilson worked in SU's Mary Ann Shaw Center for Public and Community Service as curriculum/assessment director for a community service program called Balancing the Books (BTB). BTB is a financial literacy mentoring program that focuses on helping "at-risk" seventh to 10th-grade students in the Syracuse City School District.

Additionally, under the direction of Associate Head Coach Bernie Fine, Wilson worked for two summers at Jim Boehm's Big Orange Basketball Camp serving as a coach.

He has accepted a position as a financial management analyst with the Department of the Army and will be working at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C.
