

WYOMING VALLEY WEST YOUTH FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

Back Mtn. teams head to Super Bowl

A TEAM

Back Mountain 20
Ed-Lark 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats A team won a 20-0 playoff victory over the Ed-Lark Hurricanes.

The offensive line, led by Cody Long, Matt Durling, Adam Simonette, Brian Durling, Justus Schultz, Elija Vigil and Tyler Brobst, had another great game dominating the line of scrimmage. The offense did a great job of paving the way for the running backs to score 20 points and rush for over 200 yards.

Dylan Pilger led the rushing attack with two rushing touchdowns. Willy Mucha had a great game as well and scored the third touchdown. Mucha also completed a pass to Dylan Pilger for a 2-point conversion while PJ Konnick, Angelo Baltier and Brain Durling each had nice runs for the Bobcat offense.

The defense played a tough game, keeping the Hurricanes scoreless. The defensive line, led by Paul Ciaccia, Austin Parry, Randy Zacharais, PJ Konnick, Elija Vigil, Justus Schultz, Cody Long and Brian Durling, kept pressure on the quarterback.

The defensive backs, led by Joey Vigil, Angelo Baltier, Dylan Pilger, Willy Mucha, Adam Simonette and Justin Bulter, did a good job of keeping the Hurricanes out of the endzone. Dylan Pilger had an interception and Elija Vigil forced the Hurricanes quarterback to fumble.

The Bobcats meet the Kingston Huskies in today's Super Bowl at Lake-Lehman High School stadium.

B TEAM

Dallas 22
Plymouth 16

The Dallas Jr. Mounts were victorious, 22-16, over the Plymouth Indians during a playoff game hosted by the Back Mountain Bobcats.

Dallas started off strong with a great offensive drive when Matt Harrison's pass to Cole Dixon was complete for a Dallas touchdown. The offense was led by David Simpson, Cole Dixon, Matt Harrison, Justin Sweeney, Chad Phillips, Corey Harris, Jarrod Hislop, Aidan Martinez and Jackson Shaver.

The Indians scored late in the first quarter, taking an 8-6 lead.

Dallas answered back with a quarterback keeper touchdown by Matt Harrison. Cole Dixon ran in the two points and Dallas was up, 14-8.

The defense, led by Xavier Barber, Joseph Bevevino, Michael Farrell, Keith Gillette, Christian Goldsmith, Charles Harry, Christopher Huntington, Justin Hutchins, Connor and Ryan Phillips, Colin Ryniec and Collin She-dletsky, held the Indians scoreless in the third quarter. Dallas' Cole Dixon found the endzone late in the third quarter for a touchdown. Jimmy Barlow completed the two points for Dallas.

Plymouth scored in the fourth quarter but ran out of time.

The Jr. Mounts will face the Kingston Township Raiders in the Super Bowl today.

Kingston Township 24

Exeter 0

The Kingston Township Raiders B Team opened up the first round of the playoffs with a 24-0 victory against a fine Exeter Panthers. The game was played on a rain-soaked, mud-filled field at the Plymouth Shawnee Indians home field.

Despite the horrible field conditions, the Raiders' running game was highly successful with three touchdowns of 45, 40 and 25 yards by Bret Storrs. A fourth score was made on a 25-yard run by Conor Motley. Tanner Gattu-
