Sunday, November 1, 2009

THE DALLAS POST

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

John Peruso, left, and Mike Terlesky work on editing a video of area veterans with the help of visiting professor Dan Kimbrough. The project at Misericordia University will be included as an oral history project of the Back Mountain area.

VETERANS

Continued from Page 1

21, of Warwick, N.Y. Their work from older Back Mountain citiwas overseen by Dan Kim- zens. The oral histories are the Bay. brough, assistant professor of project of Misericordia Universitured in the 13-minute film in- icordia's Mary Kintz Bevevino Liclude Clarence Michael, Fred brary. Searles, Jack Evans, Jack Cleary, whose son, Michael, died in the line of duty in Iraq; Richard "Buddy" Costigan, Gerald Price, Su-

Terlesky and Peruso said they talked about the Berlin Wall. were taken aback that a few of the veterans broke down during the down, it was just a spectacle that interviews, despite it being many I would love to have seen but I years since some of them have never expected it ... that was prob- just kept it all to myself and it's served.

their stories," Terlesky said. "It on (in the video)," Michael said. about it," Evans said.

was mostly how they dealt with (serving) personally. I'm absolutely proud of this piece."

part of "An Oral History of the Back Mountain," an ongoing vid-Shavertown, and John Peruso, eo compilation of oral histories ed about his duties on an 83-foot communications at Misericordia. ty and Generation to Generation Back Mountain veterans fea- and will be put on file at Miser-

Clarence Michael, 73, of Dallas, served in the U.S. Army from will be lost.' 1969 to 1962 during the Cold War. He was stationed in Germany for san Allen, John "Jack" Sidorek, 18 months where he gave lectures Ed Shilanski and Neil Morrison. on the Soviet Army and often

"In 1989 went that wall came ably the most exciting and the just here in the last year or so that "I just loved to hear them tell one thing I really concentrated people started interviewing me

John "Jack" Sidorek, 69, of Dallas, served in the U.S. Coast Guard from 1959 to 1963 and in The video will also become the U.S. Coast Guard Reserves from 1963 to 1965. He says, during his interview, he mainly talkpatrol boat in the San Francisco

> "I don't think the young people of today understand what we went through for our country," Sidorek said. "If these stories aren't told or people aren't aware of what happened, these stories

Evans agrees that the video is a good idea because he also feels there is not enough discussion today on World War II and other historical events.

"There are a lot of students today in school that have no idea what took place...for 65 years I've

L-L Homecoming activities will be held at Old Shoe Game on Friday

The date for the Lake-Lehwith the Old Shoe Game crowned. against Dallas on Saturday, Nov. 7. There will be a weeklong celebration.

Lehman will enjoy breakfast Nov. 7. together at the Huntsville Golf Course commemorating schools.

man Homecoming Celebra- be held from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Fri- fire engine, class floats, cheertion has changed and it will day, Nov. 6, at which time the leaders, band members and the now be held in conjunction Homecoming King will be Homecoming Court.

pass and kick tournament, a ra- along with their parents, will be dar softball/baseball throw, honored for the dedication they The senior football players, small children's games, raffles. have shown for the football procheerleaders and band mem- good food and more will be held gram. bers of both Dallas and Lake- from 1 to 5 p.m. n Saturday,

A small parade will take place at 4 p.m. beginning at the Lehthe rivalry between the two man-Jackson Elementary School and ending at the football stadi-

The Homecoming Dance will um. The parade will include a Senior football players, band A festival featuring a punt members and cheerleaders,

> Our Homecoming Queens Court will be introduced at approximately 6:15 p.m. and the 2009 Homecoming Queen will be crowned before the 7 p.m. kickoff.

SCOUTS EARN RECOGNITION EMBLEMS

The Tiger Cubs of Pack 155, of Trucksville United Methodist Church, received Immediate Recognition Emblems at their last den meeting for knowing the Cub Scout sign, salute and motto.In addition to earning the Immediate Recognition Emblem, Jacob Banta, Ethan Shilanski, Austin Sowga, and Matt Cheskiewicz earned two orange beads, one white bead and one black bead. Zack Chamberlain, Lucas Tomko and Dylan Roberts earned two orange beads and one black bead and Brady Dautrich earned one white bead, one orange bead and one black bead. From left, are Austin Sowga, Zack Chamberlain, Lucas Tomko, Matt Cheskiewicz, Dylan Roberts and Brady Dautrich. Absent at the time of the photo were Jacob Banta and Ethan Shilanski.

Reunion meeting

Members of the Lake-Noxen High School Class of 1960 are invited to a meeting at 7

Boy Scouts planning spaghetti dinner

Tunkhannock, will hold a spa- meatballs, salad, bread, beverghetti dinner from 6 to 8 p.m. on age and dessert will be served

Boy Scout Troop 518, of A complete meal of spaghetti,

PAGE 13

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Matt Ell, of Centermoreland, completes a drawing for a block print he made at Verve Vertu at Arts Universe in Wilkes-Barre.

Continued from Page 1

tin, and Vertu translates from tu, Matt Ell, 26, of Centermore-French to excellence in objects of land, carved a Christmas cat from available for purchase at the art. That high spirit for art is evi- a stamping sponge for the student among the students who dio's upcoming Christmas art ex- 3 p.m. Monday through Thurscreate silk batiks, felted wallets, hibit. The exhibit will be held watercolor and acrylic paintings Dec. 4 at St. Luke's Episcopal and other artwork.

About 20 artists are served by the studio, three of whom are full- drawing cats because "they're the time and receive a quarterly stipend. All of the artists are paid a artistic thing to do is draw carpercentage of the profits from toons and monster characters work they have created that is such as Godzilla. His brother, sold. Classes are also offered to Christopher, works as a cartoothe general community.

"Some of us might learn slower SKG in California. than others, but we don't like to focus on the disabilities but the man said.

farm that is a spinoff of Lehman and pink. Nursery in Dallas. The studio purchased some of the wool and ty said. "I just love pink." Dougherty is incorporating it into her felt wallets.

"We try to introduce something new every few months," Harleman said. "It's an ongoing learning process.'

On a recent visit to Verve Ver- in Shavertown. Church in Scranton.

Ell, who has autism, enjoys greatest." However, his favorite nist for DreamWorks Animation

"I like to do artwork," Ell said. Dougherty created an angel on abilities we have in art," Harle- felt because she feels angels are beautiful. She regularly draws an-The students have also been gels, flowers and leaves and, taking wool spinning classes at more often than not, chooses "Ewe and I," a working sheep bright shades of yellow, purple

"I can't help myself," Dougher-

An exhibit of artwork by Verve

Vertu artists is currently on display at Marquis Art and Frame in Wilkes-Barre. A line of greeting cards created by the artists is also for sale at Ah!Some Chocolates

In addition, a full line of art is Verve Vertu Studio from 9 a.m. to day.

PUZZLE ANSWERS

King Crossword -

PARF

TOL

9

6

X

5

15

X

+

X

Answers

Solution time: 21 mins.

ESS ROD SPELL

IT GOO

PLAN ALL RENC

R B P O I

LIZ

TATOES

p.m. on Monday, Nov. 2, at Grotto Pizza, Harveys Lake, to plan the upcoming 50th anniversary reunion.

Continued from Page 1

so ask for special prayer requests for family members, especially those who have died.

Kleintob says, although the majority of the time is spent on scripture, volunteers are willing to talk about whatever is on the prisoners' minds. Most often, she says, they ask about her health and family.

In the summer of 2008, Kleintob was diagnosed with breast cancer and underwent 38 treatments of radiation. She is now cancer free.

said of her prison ministry work. "I don't see them as prisoners. I see them as people."

It is faith and determination that keep Kleintob pushing along in life despite many challenges. Aside from her re-

Go Figure! -

÷

X

3

7

14

answers

6

8

.

4

12

lin Hall at Nativity of the children ages 5 and under. Take-Blessed Virgin Mary Church, 99 E. Tioga St., Tunkhannock.

Saturday, Nov. 7 in Father Nal- for $6 for adults and free for outs will be available starting at 5:30 p.m.

sons within a year of each other. me in the first place. It doesn't Her son, Derr, died in 2007 and mean anything that they lock the her other son, Jon, passed away in 2008. Kleintob's husband, Sheldon, died in 1991.

She also has two daughters: Gail Whitebread, of Blakeslee, and Shelley Russin, of Kingston. I think they think we do not think

When she was younger, she ated men. "(For me it's) just would often bake and solicit people to bake for church festivals them some light and some sunand dinners. She also helped shine." work a stand the church had each year at the Bloomsburg Fair.

Once Kleintob gets to know the prisoners, they will converse with her about crimes they have committed and their sentences. Some of them have converted to Christianity while in prison "I missed it terribly when I while others admit to having was sick and couldn't go," she been taught right from wrong while growing up but straying at

> Even though a few of the prisoners in the group are serving life sentences, Kleintob has never felt afraid around them.

the first time I went," she said. "I cent illness, she lost her two know that God is watching over

Super Crossword

doors behind me."

active member of her church.

some point in their lives.

"I have not been afraid since

Kleintob will remain active in the prison ministry for as long as she can. "I think it gives them hope and Kleintob has always been an of them as prisoners, but as friends," she said of the incarcerknowing that you're bringing

