

Dallas grididders take Old Shoe home

Mountaineers trounce Lake-Lehman Knights, 48-6, in 62nd annual game between the two Back Mountain rivals.

The Dallas offense exploded for 35 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Black Knights of Lake-Lehman, 48-6, in the 62nd Annual Old Shoe Game between the two Back Mountain rivals.

The Mountaineers scored five of their touchdowns from inside the 10-yard line led by quarterback Adam Goeringer who scored on a pair of two short runs and Jake Simon who added a pair of short scoring runs.

Before an overflow Lake-Lehman Homecoming crowd, Dallas improved its record to 9-1, advancing to the District 2 Class 3A playoffs.

The Mountaineers were scheduled to play North Pocono this weekend at Mountaineer Stadium.

Lake-Lehman, behind quarterback Adam Weaver, had little trouble moving the ball against the Dallas defense in the first quarter.

The Black Knights (4-6) scored on a 25-yard pass from Weaver to Brian Mathers, pulling within one to 7-6 with 4:44 remaining in the first quarter.

The junior quarterback threw for 138 of his 165 yards in the first half.

From that point, however, it was almost all Dallas.

Dallas held Lake-Lehman to just 85 yards in the second half, 56 of them coming on a run by Mathers.

All three Black Knights' first downs in the second half came on the same drive which resulted in Lake-Lehman being stopped at the Dallas 3-yard line.

The Mountaineer offense gained 183 yards in the first half and 186 in the second.
