

Mountaineers win, advance to D2 championship

Dallas gridders grab 21-14 victory over North Pocono in District 2 Class 3A semifinal game and were scheduled to meet Abington Heights in championship game yesterday.

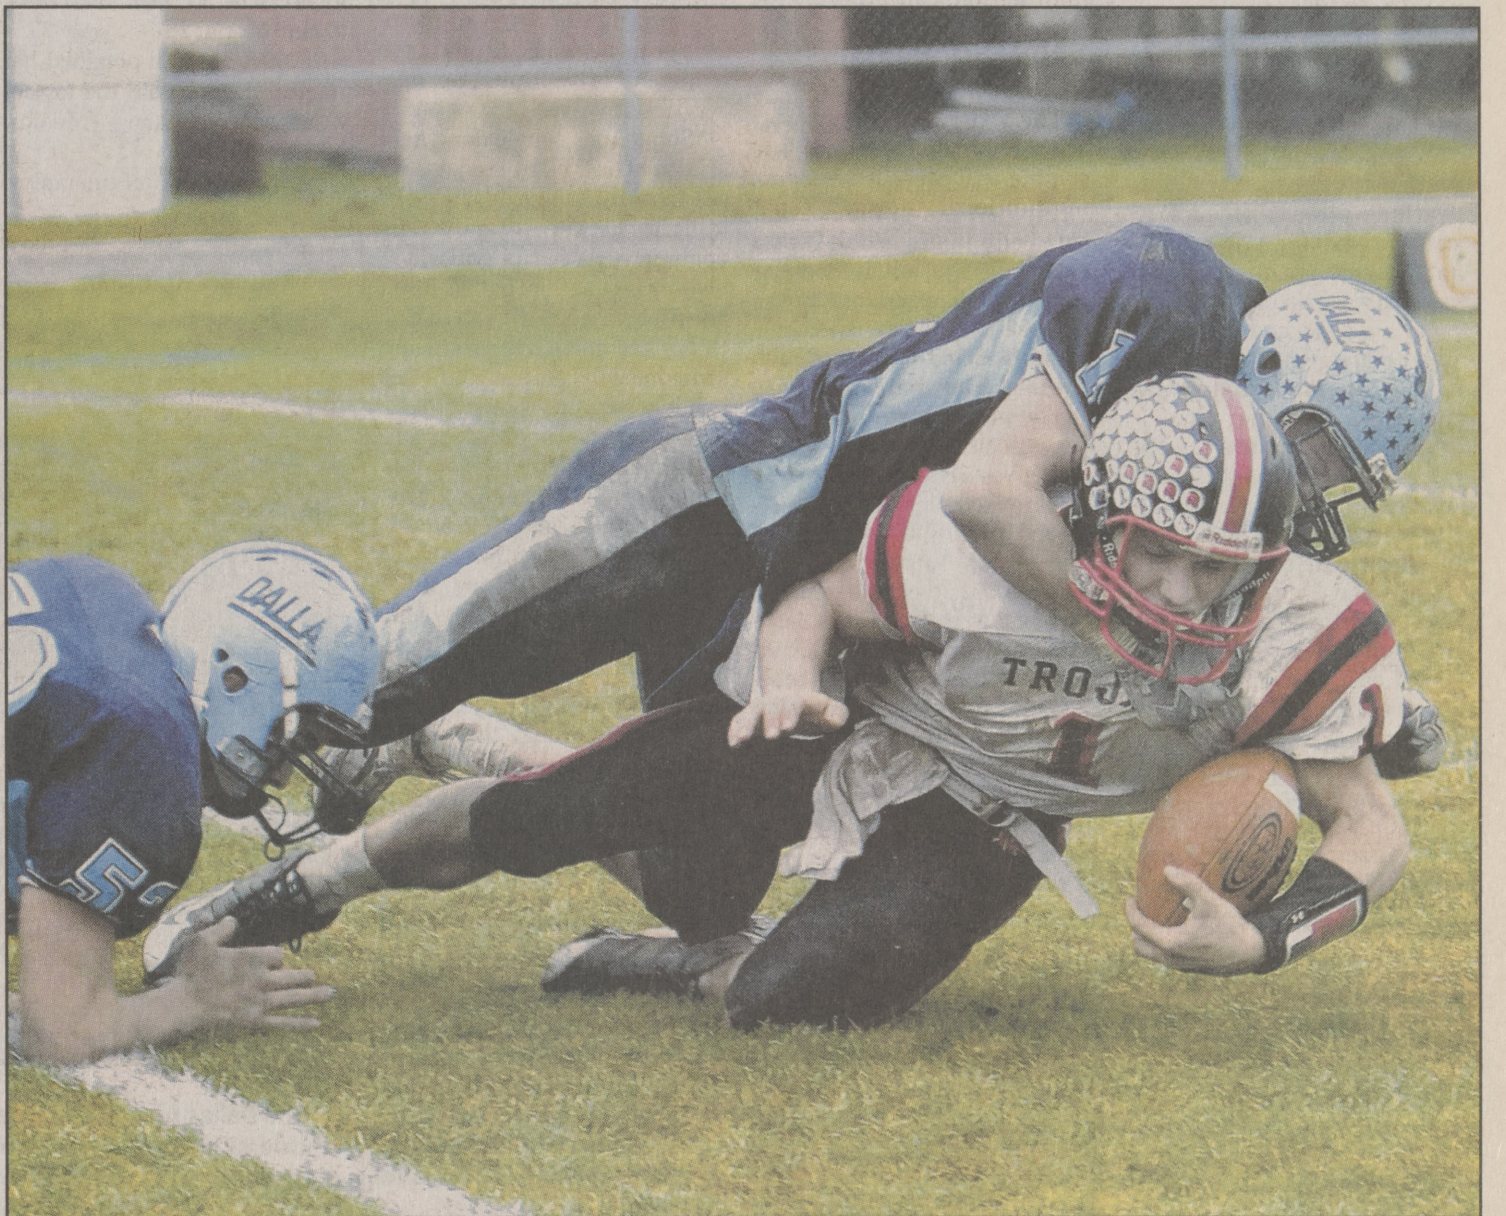

After throwing an interception and fumbling the football, Dallas quarterback Adam Goeringer redeemed himself when he broke loose for a 30-yard touchdown run to lead the Mountaineers past North Pocono, 21-14, in a District 2 Class 3A semifinal game at Dallas stadium last Saturday.

Goeringer's teammate Jim Roccograndi recovered the loose ball after the fumble and, three plays later, Goeringer scored his second rushing touchdown of the game in addition to one through the air.

Goeringer rushed for 104 yards and two touchdowns and threw for another while the Dallas defense dominated a potent North Pocono attack for most of the game en route to advancing to this weekend's championship game.

Second-seeded Dallas (10-1) was scheduled to face top-seeded Abington Heights (10-1) at Scranton Memorial Stadium. Abington Heights advanced with a 53-19 pounding of No. 4 seed Berwick.

The Mountaineer defense limited North Pocono to 176 yards of total offense with 71 of those coming on two complete passes in the final two minutes of the game.

Dallas' Taylor Dunn (No. 11) tackles North Pocono punter Matt Smith (No. 1) after Smith recovered a long snap that sailed over his head third-quarter action, putting the Mountaineers deep in Trojan territory.

Dallas quarterback Adam Goeringer (No. 11) looks to see if he made a first down after running a keeper against North Pocono.

Dallas cheerleaders Samantha Lenta, top, and Amanda Mikolaitis cheer on the Mountaineers.
