New mayor sworn in while community rallies to help council member Samson

By EILEEN GODIN
Dallas Post Correspondent

A new year means new faces on the Harveys Lake Borough Council as four new council members and a new mayor were sworn in Monday night.

Clarence Hogan, who defeated former Mayor Richard Boice in November, was all smiles as he took his seat. Two years remaining on Hogan's council term will be filled by Richard E. Williams III.

New council members Boyd T. Barber, Francis J. Kupko and Larry A. Radel, all Republicans, replace Betty Jane West, Ed Kelly and Lawrence Lucarino.

Newly-elected Luzerne County President Judge Thomas Burke swore in new council members and the mayor.

Other re-appointments were Kupko as council president, Radel as vice president, Susan Sutton as borough secretary, Andy Luzetski as zoning officer, Charles McCormick as solicitor, Prociak and Associates of Wilkes-Barre as auditor, Pasonick Engineering of Wilkes-Barre as borough engineers and Bill Hilbert to a three-year term on the zoning board.

In other news, it was announced that a spaghetti dinner will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 15, in the American Legion to benefit council member Carole Samson and her husband. The Samsons' home burned to the ground on New Year's Eve.

Tickets are $10 and available at Javer's Store, the American Legion or by calling the borough office at 639-2113. Betty Jane West announced that donations can be dropped off at the borough building.

Council's next regular monthly meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 19, at the municipal building.
