Three members of Dallas High School Marching Band represent school at football bowl game

David Sebolka, Anthony Huntington and Allyson Sebolka represented the Dallas High School Marching Band when they performed in the pre-game and halftime shows of the Chick-fil-A Bowl college football bowl game in Atlanta on December 31, 2009. The trio performed with over 900 musicians from all over the country while they played Michael's Jackson's hit songs, "Thriller," "Billie Jean" and "Bad" in front of over 70,000 fans in the Georgia Dome and with millions watching on ESPN. While in Atlanta the students and their families visited the Georgia Aquarium, the NEW World of Coca Cola, the Atlanta Zoo and Underground Atlanta.

CCK DONATES TO CHILDREN'S ASSOCIATION

Community Cares For Kids recently made a donation to Wyoming Valley Children's Association, a local nonprofit agency which provides therapy for local children who have developmental and neurological disabilities, including speech delays, and preschool education to all children. Community Cares For Kids is a local organization comprised of professionals, friends, neighbors and families who give their time and talents to help children in need of corrective surgery. From left, are Abigayle Cryan, Amelia Hoffman, Craig Lukatch, Director of Development, WVCA; Patrick Height, Susan Collini, co-founder of Community Cares For Kids; Savannah Serrano, Anthony Cencetti and Luke Hoffman.

PEOPLE BRIEFS

Rittenberg honored

Sarah Rittenberg, of Shavertown, was named to the Commendable Scholar list for the fall 2009 semester at Mitchell College.

Commendable Scholars are awarded to students with grade point averages between 3.0 and 3.49.

Lipski named to dean's list

Jaime Lipski, of Dallas, and a member of the Class of 2011, has been named to the dean's list at Providence College for the fall 2009 semester.

To qualify for the dean's list, students must achieve at least a 3.55 grade point average with a minimum of 12 credits.

Gilbert is on dean's list

Mark Gilbert, a freshman from Dallas, has been named to the fall 2009 dean's list at Wagner College, a liberal arts institution on New York City's Staten Island.

Dean's list recognition requires a GPA of 3.5 or higher.

MU students pass radiography exam

Hillary Lipinski and Ashlie Morris, both of Dallas, are among 10 Misericordia University medical imaging majors who recently passed the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) national certification exam in radiography.

ARRT is the world's largest credentialing organization that seeks to ensure high quality patient care in radiologic technology, according to the agency. It tests and certifies technologists and administers continuing education and ethics requirements for its annual registration.
