

Sports

Lady Mountaineer Wendy Greenwood swims the butterfly stroke.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Mountaineers reign supreme

Both the boys and girls swims teams at Dallas High School scored 139 points to defeat Wyoming Seminary on Feb. 1.

The boys won their meet, 139-44, as Mountaineer Chris Tamanini set two school records. He won the 50 free with a time of 22.7 and the 100 free with a 49.8 and was part of the winning 200 medley relay and 400 free relay teams.

The Lady Mountaineers took a 139-42 victory over Wyoming Seminary behind the performance of Caitlyn Barry who placed first in the 200 free, 500 free, 400 free relay and 200 free relay.

Teammate Lindsey Kelly added first-place finishes in the 200 IM and the 100 free for the Dallas girls.

ABOVE: Mike Stec dives for Dallas.

AT RIGHT: Jenna Lombardo is the lead-off swimmer for Dallas in the medley relay.

AT LEFT: Nicole Chiago is congratulated by teammate Sarah Zerfoss after winning her event.

BELOW: Dallas High School assistant swim coach Jenn Swiderski is full of encouragement for Mountaineer swimmers.

