Senator Lisa Baker announces plans for re-election

State Senator Lisa Baker is asking voters for a second four-year term. During her three years in office, Senator Baker said she has actively pushed legislation, proved accessible throughout the district and demonstrated accountability by accepting only actual expenses, saving taxpayers thousands of dollars. "I listen to the concerns people express, discuss issues with individuals and groups across the district and make sure that state officials respond to the problems, projects and priorities that emerge in our communities, Baker said." Senator Baker sees herself as a key player in the effort to strike the right balance in the gas drilling in the Marcellus Shale, allowing the region to realize the jobs and economic benefits while ensuring that water and land are properly protected. As a committee chair, she pushed through legislation long sought by veterans and volunteer emergency responders. "I believe we have a special obligation to those who serve to defend freedom and to protect our communities," she said. Baker took the lead in introducing legislation to respond to the notorious "kids for cash" scandal in Luzerne County. Her proposals include remedies for the victims of the scandal and preventative measures to strengthen the juvenile justice system against future corruption. Senator Baker is pressing for action on legislation to reform the budget process and prevent a budget crisis such as occurred in 2009 when the state budget was signed 101 days past the deadline. The Rev. Chuck Gommer and Gen. Dan O'Neill will once again serve as campaign co-chairmen. Alvin Cragle will continue to serve as the committee treasurer.
