

Couple cited on 50th anniversary

A surprise 50th wedding anniversary reception was held in honor of Guy and Margaret Peters, of Centermoreland, on Saturday, Feb. 27, at the Northmoreland Township Fire Hall.

The golden anniversary celebration was attended by many of the couple's friends and relatives and music was provided by the Roger Furman Band. A splendid array of food and a three-tier anniversary cake were enjoyed by all.

State Representative Karen Boback presented the couple with a citation from the State Capitol in Harrisburg, commemorating the special occasion.

Father Vinny Dang of St. Francis Cabrini Church, Carverton, renewed the couple's marriage vows.

Guy and Marge were united in Holy Matrimony on Feb. 27, 1960 in a marriage ceremony performed by the Rev. Kane at our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake.

Bridesmaid was Mary Ellen Sichter and best man was Nick Rusinko, brother of the bride. A wedding reception was held at the former Beaumont Inn.

Margaret is the daughter of the late Joseph and Anna Cebrick Rusinko, of Harveys Lake. Guy is the son of the late Ira Peters, of Lancaster and the late Katherine Peters, of Eureka, California.

The couple has four children, Joseph, of Manassas, Virginia; Patricia, Ronald and Christopher, all of Tunkhannock; 17 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The couple resided in the Back Mountain after they were married, then moved to Georgia and State Rep. Karen Boback, right, honors Guy and Margaret Peters, of Centermoreland, with a citation on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.
