'Great American Trailer Park Musical' pulls into Music Box

"The Great American Trailer Park Musical" is pulling up to The Music Box Dinner Playhouse starting April 9 and continuing through April 25. The playhouse is located at 196 Hughes St., Swyersville.

Frequently compared to both TV's "Desperate Housewives" and theater's "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," this funny, sexy, bawdy, R-rated musical tale is seasoned with a murderous ex-boyfriend, an electric chair, the Ice Capades and a gorgeous stripper on the run who comes between a Sally Jesse loving agoraphobic housewife and her love starved, dim-witted husband.

With guidance from a singing Greek chorus of trailer park divas residing in Armadillo Acres, a Florida mobile home community, this side-splitting musical ranges across the American Radio dial from country to blues to rock to disco to bump n' grind to R&B. Music and lyrics are by David Nehls with a book by Betsy Kelso.

Director John Owen Kennedy has assembled a truckload of talented musical and comedic actors to tow this mobile home musical home. All cast members are highly recognizable Music Box veterans: Debbie Zehner, Cate McDonald, Amanda Reese, Dana Feigenblatt, Bill Lipski, Jennifer Rogers and Kennedy himself.

Scenic and lighting design is by Michael Gallagher and costume design is by Mary R. Dower.

Performances of "The Greater American Trailer Park Musical" will be held at 8 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and at 3 p.m. on Sundays with a buffet dinner to be served 90 minutes prior. The show contains adult content and language and is recommended for mature audiences only.

Tickets may be purchased through the box office at 283-2195 or 800-698-PLAY.
