Prom show earns $$$ for group

The Lake-Lehman High School Theatre Club earned money recently by sponsoring a fashion show of prom attire. Fashions were provided by Kathy Nardone of Prom Excitement and Sarno and Sons. Gift certificates for gowns and prom needs were raffled throughout the show.

PAINTINGS ON DISPLAY AT LIBRARY

The April exhibit at the Back Mountain Memorial Library's Art Display Wall is a collection of paintings by artist Jody Hadsall of Harvey's Lake. Hadsall is a member of the Wyoming Valley Art League and chairperson for its guest artist workshops. She is inspired by nature's boundless beauty and says that painting brings peace and serenity to her life. Her collection of paintings includes various scenes from Ricketts Glen, Harvey's Lake and the Finger Lakes, done in oil, acrylic and water color. Hadsall is the mother of two children, Scott and Kevin.

Auction committee seeking donations

The committee members for the Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction Nearly Olde Booth are seeking donations of jewelry and accessories.

New jewelry, old jewelry, chains, rings, bracelets, brooches, fine jewelry and costume jewelry, broken jewelry, children's jewelry and men's jewelry, tiaras, jewelry boxes, hairpins and hatpins are needed.

No piece of jewelry is too big, too small, too old, too new or too broken since everything can be used at the auction.

Small leather goods and designer handbags, lace mantillas, dresser sets, ring holders, perfume atomizers and cologne bottles are also needed for the jewelry section of the Nearly Olde Booth.

All items are tax deductible and can be taken to the library at 96 Huntsville Rd., Dallas.

Donors are asked to clearly mark items "Nearly Olde."

Lake-Lehman Foundation plans 'High Tea at Hayfield'

The Lake-Lehman Foundation (LLF) will host its third annual "High Tea at Hayfield" at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus (Hayfield House Ballroom) from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 25, in the Hayfield House Ballroom on the campus of Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

The foundation's special guest will be the recipient of the 2010 Lake-Lehman Foundation Scholarship, a scholarship to be awarded annually to a graduating senior of Lake-Lehman High School pursuing higher education.

The Lake-Lehman Foundation works for the betterment of the Lake-Lehman School District and community through new and improved facilities, educational and community enrichment programs, and scholarships.

The foundation board meets at 7 p.m. on the third Thursday of every month in the Lake-Lehman Junior/Senior High School Library.

Guests of the tea will enjoy a menu of finger sandwiches, homemade desserts and a wide variety of teas and other beverages.

The event will also feature a musical performance by Lake-Lehman junior, Winter Wenner, and the foundation's much-anticipated basket raffle.

The cost for this event is $20 for adults and $15 for students and senior citizens. All proceeds benefit the Lake-Lehman Foundation Scholarship Fund.

Reservations can be made by calling the foundation office at 255-2906.

SCHOOL BRIEFS

DHS Class of 1980 planning reunion

The Dallas High School Class of 1980 is organizing its 30th anniversary class reunion this fall. The Class of 1980 also invites all students from the Class of 1979 and Class of 1981.

An organizational meeting will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday April 6, at Grotto Pizza, Harveys Lake. A table has been reserved in Bob Besecker's name at the Grotto. Anyone interested in helping gather information on classmates from any of those three classes is encouraged and invited to attend.

Anyone who cannot attend next Tuesday's meeting, but has an interest in helping with the effort is asked to contact Bob Besecker, Jr. at bbesecker@mericle.com or Mike Getz at mgetz@bestlineinc.com.

Lock-In meeting set

The Dallas High School 2010 Graduation Lock-In committee will meet at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, April 7, in the Dallas High School Library.

Grocery certificates for Mr. Z's and Thomas' Family Market will be sold in increments of $50.

Students are asked to e-mail a baby or toddler photo and a photo from senior year to lockinpics@comcast.net for the Lock-In video. Photos will be returned the night of the Lock-In.

MU to hold information night

Misericordia University invites college students interested in transferring to the Back Mountain campus and adult learners who want to start or further their academic and professional careers to attend an information night from 5 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, April 7, in the Catherine Evans McGowan Room of the Mary Kintz Bevevino Library.

An appointment can be made for the information night, but registration is not necessary. For more information, contact Joan Foster, coordinator of transfer recruiting, 674-6255 or e-mail admiss@misericordia.edu.

Library Week presentation slated

A National Library Week presentation: "Helping Our Communities Thrive" will be held from noon to 1:30 p.m. on Monday, April 12, in the Alden Lab of the Mary Kintz Bevevino Library on the campus of Misericordia University.

The free program will feature Misericordia students who will discuss the service projects they have conducted throughout the regional community.

Lock-In fundraiser set

The Dallas Lock-In Committee will hold a fundraiser from 5 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, April 15, at Friendly's Restaurant in Dallas.

A percentage of sales from eat-in and take-out orders will be donated to the Lock-In.

Sem music department plans program

The Wyoming Seminary Music Department will present "The Voice of the Stradivari" at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 16, in the Great Hall of Wyoming Seminary, 228 Wyoming Ave., just north of Kingston Corners.

This special fund-raising performance will feature two Stradivarius violins from Chicago and all proceeds will benefit the Sem Music Department and its programs. Tickets are $20 for adults, $10 for students. For information and tickets, call 270-2190.

Bevevino Library Friends conduct sale

The Friends of the Bevevino Library will host a Book and Bake Sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, April 16, and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 17, in the third floor Heritage Room of the library on the campus of Misericordia University.

There will be plenty of used paperback and hardcover books for sale, as well as CDs and DVDs. Donations of sale items are welcome.
