Helping out at the auction

Jackson Township hosted its second annual municipal auction on April 17.

Auctioneer Leo Glodzik from L.A.G Auction Services of Duylaea conducted the auction which involved several municipalities, including Kingston Township, Franklin Township, Northmoreland Township, Lehman Township and the Luzerne Conservation District.

Some of the items auctioned included pick-up trucks, dump trucks, garbage packers, police cruisers, a Komatsu mini excavator, a leaf vac, wood chipper, plow mount, pull behind paver and a snowplow.

Scouts from Boy Scout Troop #146 of Jackson Township conducted a refreshment stand during the auction with proceeds to benefit their flag fund.

Fifth Annual Powwow slated

The Fifth Annual Mother's Day Intertribal Powwow with free admission will be held from 10 a.m. to dusk on Mother's Day weekend, May 7-9, at the Noxen Fire Co. grounds on Stull Road.

The event, which honors all mothers, is a gathering for all people sponsored by Tyconac, Inc., a non-profit Native organization, and the Noxen Fire Co.

Gates open at 10 a.m. with

Grand Entry of all dignitaries and dancers in full regalia at noon Indian Time. Dennis Wagner's Veterans Honor Guard will be featured in the traditional Veterans Honoring ceremony.

Admission is free. Participants are asked to bring their own lawn chair.
