Taroli will graduate with law degree

Syracuse University's College of Law and The State University of New York College of Environmental Science and Forestry have announced that Alison M. Taroli is a candidate for the joint degrees of Juris Doctorate and Masters of Science with a major in Natural Resource Policy on May 23 at the Carrier Dome, Syracuse, NY.

Taroli is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Garry S. Taroli, of Dallas, and a 2007 graduate of King's College where she obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry with a minor in Mathematics.

She was offered and accepted an associate position in the Patent Law Department of Steptoe and Johnson LLP, an international law firm in Washington, DC.

Two inducted into Lambda Pi Eta

Aimee Fritzges and Kelly Gibbons, Back Mountain residents and students at King's College, were recently inducted into Lambda Pi Eta, the national honor society for communication studies.

Fritzges, of Shavertown, is a junior mass communications major with a minor in professional writing. She is the layout editor for King's College's yearbook, the Regis.

A Dallas resident, Gibbons is a junior mass communications major. She is a full-time employee of King's College as an assistant in the human resources department.

Lambda Pi Eta was founded in 1985 to recognize, promote and reward outstanding scholastic achievement in communication studies.

MU student completes internship

Aubrie L. Pfirman, of South Williamsport, will graduate in May from Misericordia University with a degree in chemistry and secondary education and already has completed a research internship through the National Science

Lake-Lehman band groups win big at Chapter 7 championship

Members of the Lake-Lehman Indoor Percussion and Color Guard groups dominated the Chapter 7 championships held Sunday, April 25, at Pocono Mountain East High School in Swiftwater.

Lake-Lehman swept the floor with all four units, earning first-place recognition along with trophies.

The elementary percussion, under the direction of Patrick Stanley, presented its show, "Batman - The Dark Knight," achieving a ranking of "excellent."

The high school percussion, directed by AJ DeFrancesco and assisted by Eric Boylan and Brendan Carter, performed its show, "The Horror," obtaining a score of 88.5.

The middle school color guard, a senior project co-directed by Kaitlyn Martin and Symone Vaughn, delivered its show, "Lucky," producing a score of 78.6.

The high school color guard, directed by Brian Marsh and assisted by Jess Milbrodt and Michelle Keller, portrayed its show entitled "Winter" and earned a score of 81.3.

The units are attending the All-Chapter Championships in Wildwood, New Jersey this weekend.
