Round table begins season

The Wyoming Valley Civil War Round Table will begin its 14th year at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 9, with guest speaker James A. Hessler presenting his program on "Sickles at Gettysburg" in the lower level of the Daddow-Isaac American Legion, 730 Memorial Hwy., Dallas. The Wyoming Valley Civil War Round Table was the brain child of Ed and Connie Brewer in 1996. There is no age limit and anyone from students to retired people interested in history, particularly Civil War history, is welcome. The purpose of the Round Table is to promote interest in the Civil War, one of the defining events in our history. This is not a re-enactment group. At each meeting, there is a presentation by an author of Civil War history or first person programs, such as President Abraham Lincoln, Gen. John Reynolds or Gen. Gordon Mead. The group has enjoyed a CW cooking demonstration, CW artists, a presentation by re-enactors of the 3rd Regt. U.S. Colored Troops, cavalry and artillery programs. In addition to monthly speakers, the group shares information on an informal basis among members in addition to taking group tours and trips to battlefields and museums.

FOR THE RECORD ...

The name of Brittney Rorcencrans was spelled incorrectly in a story that appeared in the August 1 issue of The Dallas Post. The Dallas Post regrets the error.

Due to incorrect information supplied to The Dallas Post by Luzerne County Community College, the name of Elizabeth Aciekewicz, of Trucksville, appeared on the Honors List for the spring 2010 semester. Aciekewicz has actually been named to the President's List at the college.
