Scouts pitch in to serve lunch to volunteers for Habitat for Humanity

Scouts from Bear Den 3 of Cub Scout Pack 281, Dallas, provided and served lunch to volunteers in Edwardsville. The Scouts also did some landscaping to contribute to the efforts of the Habitat project by helping to prepare the flowerbeds and planting perennials for curb appeal. This community service project was a rewarding experience for the young Scouts to volunteer and make a difference in their community. This is one of the requirements for the Scouts to earn the Cub Scout Outdoor activity badge.
