Atty. Scartelli will present at program

Scranton personal injury lawyer Melissa Scartelli, president and founder of Scartelli, Distasio & Kowalski, P.C., will present with neurosurgeon David Sedor as part of The Committee for Justice for All's (CJA) two-day, 12-credit continuing legal education (CLE) program, Effective Use of Experts in Personal Injury Cases on Friday, Sept. 17, at the Best Western Genetti in Wilkes-Barre.

Their presentation, "Effective Use of a Medical Expert," draws upon Scartelli's more than 20 years of experience representing plaintiffs in medical malpractice and other cases.

Scartelli is a frequent CLE presenter, speaking on personal injury, medical malpractice, trial tactics, jury selection and more.

BMT residents receive nursing pins

Undergraduate nursing students received the Misericordia University Nursing Pin, a symbol of achievement in the nursing profession, during a pinning ceremony at Walsh Hall to recognize students who completed the Part-Time Accelerated Evening Bachelor of Science Nursing Program.

Back Mountain residents receiving the pin include Andrew Breazeale, Dallas; Angela Callahan, Tunkhannock; and Joan Luksa, Dallas.

Henry named to dean's list

Lauren Henry, of Dallas, was named to the dean's list at LIM College for the spring 2010 semester.

To be placed on the dean's list, students must earn a grade point average between 3.50 and 3.79.
