

BILL TARUTIS PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

State Rep. Karen Boback, left, shares a laugh with Emmanuel Assembly of God Church pastor Lawrence Reed and his wife Carolyn on the occasion of their 44th wedding anniversary during the church's family fellowship dinner.

Continued from Page 1

after dinner, which included his list of signs of enduring love, and had one message for parishioners to take note of throughout the night: "Marriage that works is work."

Some of the "irritating" topics discussed at the dinner included procrastination, forgetfulness and lack of communication.

just one steady signal," Reed said. "Like a heart monitor, a through them."

Reed has been counseling engaged and married couples

"Lives and marriages are not Wedding photographs are displayed at the Emmanuel Assembly of God Family Fellowship Dinner.

steady signal means it's dead. We throughout his 29 years at Em- lives. have ups and downs but we grow manuel Assembly of God Church and said the questions brought 'How do we make divorce easup during these sessions make ier?" he said. "The real question him aware of the depleting im- is, 'How do we make marriage portance of marriage in people's better?"

"Some people have asked me,

SIGNS OF ENDURING LOVE

These were some of the questions asked by the Rev. Lawrence Reed, pastor of Emmanuel Assembly of God Church in Harveys Lake, to those in attendance at a recent fellowship dinner at the church.

1. Do you both have similar, not identical, life goals?

2. Can you vent to one another? 3. Can you discuss or disagree objectively?

4. Do you continue to discover new aspects to your mate's personality or character that will build your marriage? 5. Can you each give and take constructive criticism?

6. Do you surprise one another with unexpected gifts?

8. Do you talk over the table pleasantly?

9. Do you make frequent attempts to spend time together? 10. Do you sincerely feel that you share equal responsibilities in your relationship?

11. How do you handle angry moments? 12. Do you make time for little demonstrations of affection?

13. Do you remember special dates? 14. Do you really listen to each other?

15. Do you "feel" good about each other and when you're together?

16. Are you building on your foundation of love?

17. Can you be sensitive to one another's feelings without expressing them? 18. How well do you tolerate one another's moods, flaws and faults?

SCARE

Continued from Page 3

hopes these kinds of games will keep them from fearing medical procedures in the future.

"We're teaching them what to expect," said sophomore Rebecca Knick, of Harding.

And the children took away knowledge from the event.

"(It was about) seeing what these (X-rays) are and connecting them to these (bones)," said 4year-old Lucy Honeywell, of Lehman.

Four-year-old Ellie Flynn is fascinated by what she sees at Misericordia University's 'Bone Academy.'

BILL TARUTIS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Continued from Page 9

Balara, Scott McGlaughlin and

Devon Butwin. The Raiders put the game out of touchdown runs from Gattuso and Michael Starbuck. Christian attempt. Defensively, the Raiders were flying to the ball all day with strong efforts from Michael Doggett, Kyle McAndrew, Dylan

DTEAM

Back Mountain 34 Tunkhannock 6

The Back Mountain Bobcats D Knights

Tigers, 34-6, thanks to strong offensive efforts by Dale Deyo, William Labar, Ethan Adams, Connor touchdowns while Gavin Shep-Morgan and Colby Kennedy all of man threw a touchdown pass to whom rushed for one touchdown. Matt Whitesell and Aaron Groboski both scored extra points.

Defensively, Alex Hartman and reach in the second half with Christopher Buzalka led the team team improved to 4-1-1 with a 22-0 with four tackles each followed by Peyton Shaw, Cole Morio, Da-Motley also recorded a conversion mian Conklin and Jeffrey Meader who each had three tackles.

Ben Fife, Aaron Groboski and Luke Spencer had two tackles and Blaise Naprierkowski, Braden Love, Jonathon Martin and Josh Schuster and Michael Christman. Schnable each contributed with savage converted a 2-point converone tackle.

> Lake-Lehman Swoyersville

The Lake Lehman Junior scrimmaged

Team defeated the Tunkhannock Swoyersville Sailors.

Junior Knights quarterback Gavin Shepman rushed for two Jake Trumbower.

Dallas 22 Duryea 0

The Dallas Junior Mounts Dwin against the Duryea Wildcats.

The offense was led by the blocking of Josh Peters, Alex Hajkowski, Scott Siglin, Mark Karcutskie, and Joey Peters.

Jared Adamski and Brennan Eggleston scored the three Dallas touchdowns and Matthew Luka-

Dallas' defense was led by Mike Ropietski, Ethan Sult and Colby Klinetob. Lucas Shultz, Nick Bithe niek and Matthew Esposito.

BILL TARUTIS PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Lake-Lehman's Kenny Kocher (No. 9) heads the ball during first-half action of the annual 1st Lt. Michael Cleary Memorial Soccer game between Dallas and Lake-Lehman.

ichael Cleary is remembered by Back Mountain residents for so much, not the least of which was his love of soccer.

A former member of the Dallas High School soccer team, Cleary was memorialized last Tuesday evening during the 1st Lt. Michael Cleary Memorial Game. The annual contest between Dallas and Lake-Lehman is played in memory of Cleary, a Dallas graduate and U.S. Army officer who was killed in Iraq in December 1005.

Both teams entered the game unbeaten but the Mountaineers improved to 8-0 in the Wyoming Valley conference Division I while Lake-Lehman fell to 7-1 in Division II.

Chris Scharff scored three Kevin Cope applies pressure. goals in the second half and a tough Dallas defense posted its seventh shutout in eight games in a 4-0 win against the black Knights.

Scharff, son of Dallas soccer coach Chris Scharff spent last school year in Brazil playing soccer and studying. He closed out the scoring with 7:13 remaining, scoring off a pass to give Dallas a commanding 4-0 lead. Scharff's three goals in the game brings his total to 19 goals in eight games.

The Michael Cleary Memorial Award stands "to promote camaraderie, sportsmanship and intensity to the Lake Lehman vs. Dallas soccer rivalry."

Dallas' John Murray, left, controls the ball as Lake-Lehman's

Lake-Lehman's J.J. Karlowicz, left, and Dallas' Josh Shilanski chase the ball.

Continued from Page 1

ence, interacting with the audience during the musical num-

everyone who attends the play will walk away feeling good.

"This musical appeals to evyou will have learned the scrip-Paisley and the cast hope that ture without even knowing it."

And of equal importance, a little boy with a life-threatening disease will benefit. Proceeds eryone," he said. "It's not prea- from the production will benefit chy; it uses humor and music to 1-year-old Noah Severino Deillustrate the scripture. It's all Santis, of Scranton, who has fun. You'll leave the perform- Congenital Central Hypoventiance humming the songs and lation Syndrome, a very rare and serious form of central sleep ap-

PUZZLE ANSWERS

King Crossword -Answers

Solution time: 21 mins.

Go Figure!
	5	X	6	-	9	21
	+		÷		_
	3	1	2	X	8	8
	÷		X		X
	4	+	7	+	4	15
	2		21		4

Puzzles, Page 2