BMT residents will perform in 'Rent' with Music Box Players

Three Back Mountain residents will perform in the Music Box Players' production of "Rent" today, Oct. 17, Oct. 21-24 and 28-31 at the Music Box Dinner Playhouse, 196 Hughes St., Swowersville. "Rent" is the unforgettable story of a group of young artists learning to survive, exploring love and living for today! The story takes place in New York's Lower East Side in the thriving days of Bohemian Alphabet City, under the shadow of AIDS. Caitlyn Metz, a junior at Dallas High School, is an ensemble member. She has studied dance for many years. In 2005, Metz starred as Ba-and DeSales University. She has performed in many shows at the Music Box. Her favorite roles include the beggar woman in "Sweeney Todd," Emma in "Jekyll and Hyde," Tzeitel in "Fiddler on the Roof," Pickles in "The Great American Trailer Park Musical" and Gypsy in "Gypsy." Tickets are on sale for dinner abshow or show only. Thursday evenings, Oct. 21 and 28, will be special show-only performances where student tickets will be $15 with a valid student I.D. For more information or to make reservations, call the box office at 283-2195.

Jonathan Wallace, also a junior at Dallas High School, is also in the ensemble. He has performed in numerous productions at the Music Box, including "Sweeney Todd," "Children of Eden" and "Fiddler on the Roof." Wallace was also a student in the very first Theatre Academy for young adults at the Music box. Amanda Reese is also an ensemble member. She is a graduate of Dallas High School
