POWDER PUFF

Some of the players didn't even know what to do with the football when they got it but everyone involved knew the game was for a good cause. Organized by Dallas High School student Amelia Pietraccini, the annual Powder Puff Football Game was held Oct. 10 at Mountaineer Stadium with all proceeds being donated to Dallas Mini-Thon which raises money to battle childhood cancer.

YOUTH FOOTBALL RESULTS

Two BMT teams do battle; Bobcats grab 22-14 victory

A TEAM

Back Mountain 22
Kingston Township 14

The Back Mountain Bobcats A team continued its win streak with a 22-14 win over the Kingston Township Raiders.

The offensive line, led by Justus Shultz, Evan May, Ernie Bidding, Eric George, Cameron Brennan, Hank Zielenski, Bob Oakley, Mac Fogerty, Collin Masters and Ty Valyo, had a huge day for BMT, opening holes for Justin Mucha, Joey Vigil, Justin Butler and Kyle Katchko.

Justin (Willy Mucha) led the rushing attack for BMT. Willy completed two TD passes to Vigil while Mucha added a rushing TD for BMT. Each added a rushing 2-point conversion.

The Bobcats defense dominated the game, holding the power rushing game of KT to minimal yards and only allowing KT one offensive score in the game.

The defense was led by Elija Vigil, Brandon Shaw, Randy Zacharias, John Brown, Mason Rios, Jacob Garnett, Corbin Holcomb, Zach Haddle and Paul Ciaccia.

B TEAM

Duryea 28
Back Mountain 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats B Team suffered a disappointing 28-0 loss to the Duryea Wildcats.

The offensive line, led by Christopher Allen, Nate Hazeltine, Bradley Adams, Henry Selingo, Ian Evans, Owen Morgan and Zachary Gabel, did a great job for the running backs.

Great runs were made by Stone Mannello, Nick Whitesell, Nate O'Donnell and RJ Driscoll. Mannello also had a fumble recovery.

The defense, led by Jack Symeon, Ryan Wolken, Kayla Bidding, Zack Hill, Quinten Huey and Nate LaBar, stayed tough.

C TEAM

Dallas 22
Ed-Lark 6

The Dallas C Team won a hard fought battle against the Ed/Lark Hurricanes last Sunday, 22-6.

The Dallas offense was led by Cole Dewees, who had a breakout game with over 100 yards rushing. Todd Phillips, Sean Cuba and Joseph Brennan each scored a touchdown. The Jr. Mounts' ground attack featured 20 different ball carriers throughout the game.

The defense was led by Ryan Maloney, making his first appearance in several weeks, Christian Sebastianelli, Johnny Cantando and Alex Kapral.

D TEAM

Dallas 16

Ed-Lark 6

The Dallas Junior Mounts D team kept its playoff hopes alive and improved to 6-2-1 with a hard-fought 16-6 win over the Ed-Lark Hurricanes.

The defense limited the Hurricans to one early score and was led by Nick Biniek, Josh Peters, Ethan Sult and Matthew Esposito. Fumble recoveries by Alex Hajkowski and Mike Ropietski also helped to secure the win.

The offense had another great running day. Brennan Eggleston, Matthew Lukasavage and Jared Adamski penetrated the Hurricane defense with tremendous blocking by Mark Karcutskie, Joey Peters, Lucas Shultz and Scott Siglin.
