Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Slocum have been married 50 years.

Slocums wed 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest (Bud) Slocum, of Dallas, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 10, 2010.

Mrs. Slocum, the former Charlotte Traver, is the daughter of the late Robert and Lucy Traver. She is the director of health services and former head softball coach at Misericordia University.

Mr. Slocum is the son of the late Pauline Varner and was a self-employed contractor/excavator.

They were joined together in matrimony Sept. 10, 1960, at the Alderson Methodist Church, Harveys Lake, by the Rev. John Gordon.

Attendants were Marilyn Traver Neifert, maid of honor; Joan Moore Carson, Mary Ellen Kerwin Bomboy, Rhoda Stuscavage Kucharchik and Treva Shirley Traver, bridesmaids; Jim Spencer, best man; and Jack Swire, Bruce Varner Jr., Tony Austin Jr., and Henry Cerquozzi, ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Slocum are the parents of four children, Ernie and his wife, Lisa, Dallas; Tracey, deceased; Cindy and her dog, Riley, Randallstown, Md.; and Susie Triponey and her husband, Mike, McElhattan. They are the grandparents of one granddaughter, Cassidy Triponey, and her dog, Browning, McElhattan.

The couple was honored at a celebration held at the Family Life Center of the Outlet Free Methodist Church.

Is there a sturgeon in the house?

There are ninety-eight selections on our menu. Sixty-four luscious seafood dishes. Seventeen refreshing salads and sandwiches. Two hundred imported beers and desserts too sinful to mention in print. But unfortunately, no sturgeon. If one nibbles on our line, we'll let you know.

Come for the fun, Dine Cooper's Style...
