

The Kingston Township Raiders A team cheerleaders strut their final movements.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

CHEERS!

Youth football cheerleaders from the Back Mountain took on other cheerleading squads during a cheerleading competition held Oct. 16 at the Dallas Middle School gymnasium.

Jordan Banks is lifted high by Back Mountain cheerleaders during a cheerleading competition at the Dallas Junior High School.

Paige Frederick is lifted high by her teammates during cheerleading competition at Dallas Middle School.

TOP RIGHT PHOTO: Members of the Kingston Township Raiders A team cheerleading squad perform for the judges.

BOTTOM RIGHT PHOTO: Madalyn Bozinski leads her team in a dance routine.

BMT 'C' teams in Super Bowl

The Dallas Jr. Mounts C team continued to roll last Sunday with a convincing 44-8 victory over the Duryea Wildcats in the playoffs.

The Dallas offensive line, led by Ethan Scioscia, Freddie Lombardo and Alex Kapral, opened up huge holes all day. Xander Shaner and Jacob Esposito found the endzone multiple times to lead the Dallas ground attack.

The defense turned in another outstanding performance, keeping the Wildcats out of the end zone until the fourth quarter. The defense was led by Todd Phillips, Shawn Henniger, Hunter Love and Jack Farrell.

Dallas will play in the Super Bowl at 11 a.m. today against the Kingston Township Raiders at Wyoming Valley West Stadium in Kingston.

Kingston Township 14 West Pittston 6

The Kingston Township Raiders C team advanced to the Super Bowl with a tough 14-6 victory over the West Pittston Rams.

The Raiders got on the board

Matt Maransky spots a loose ball and recovers it for the Raiders.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

first with a nice run by Christian Motley. Derek Answini scored the conversion to put KT up, 8-0.

Late in the second quarter, KT struck again on a short touchdown run by Michael Anderson to take a 14-0 halftime lead.

West Pittston got on the board late in the third quarter but the Raiders were able to hold them at bay the rest of the way to secure a spot in the title game. Blocking well were Michael Starbuck, Jacob Sorber, Dylan Schuster and Troy Turinski.

Michael Anderson boots one for the Raiders.