The Dallas Junior Mounts C team put the finishing touches on another 12-0 undefeated season last Sunday with an 8-0 victory over the Kingston Township Raiders in the Super Bowl at Wyoming Valley West Stadium.

In the third quarter, Todd Phillips hooked up with Jacob Esposito on a 48-yard pass down to the 2-yard line. Phillips scored a touchdown on the next play and the 2-point conversion put the Junior Mounts up, 8-0.

That's all the offense Dallas would need as its defense pitched a shutout against the Raiders for the second time this year.

Sean Cuba and Steven Newell each had an interception to lead the defense.
