

BMT BOBCATS ARE CHAMPS

The Back Mountain Bobcats A team won Wyoming Valley Junior Football Conference Super Bowl by way of a 42-22 win over the Kingston Township Raiders.

This is the first championship for the Bobcats since the team was formed in 2006.

The offense moved the ball up and down the field, scoring five touchdowns against a tough KT defense. The O-line, led by Evan May, Justus Shultz, Collin Masters, Mason Rios, Randy Zacharias, John Brown, Cameron Brennan, Elijah Vigil and Mac Fogerty, paved the way for the running attack.

Paul Ciaccia played a flawless game at quarterback while Justin (Willy) Mucha, Justin Butler, Joey Vigil, Corbin Holcomb and Kyle Katchko carried the ball for BMT. Mucha led the offensive attack with over 100 yards rushing and three touchdowns. Mucha and Vigil each added a 2-point conversion for the Bobcats.

Mucha also completed a TD pass to Kyle with time running out in the first half. The defense held the high-scoring Raiders to minimal gains all game.

The D-line was led by Ernie Bidding, Hank Zielenski, Bob Oakley, Eric George, Jacob (Smiley) Garnett, Zach (Stick) Haddie, Shultz, Masters and Vigil. The D'backs, led by Tye Valyo, Vigil, Ciaccia, Mucha, Butler and May, kept the Raiders "O" in check for most of the game.

Shultz, Vigil and Oakley each had sacks for BMT. Vigil had a fumble recovery and Mucha had an interception that he ran back for the final TD of the game.

D TEAM

Exeter 22

Back Mountain 14

The Back Mountain Bobcats D-Team fell short in the Super Bowl, finishing on the short end of a 22-14 game against the Exeter Panthers.

Ethan Adams scored both touchdowns for the Bobcats who ended their season with a record of 10 wins and two losses.

This was the first time the Bobcats D-Team played in the Super Bowl since the team was organized five years ago.

Members of the Back Mountain Bobcats A team celebrate their 42-22 win over the Kingston Township Raiders to win the Wyoming Valley Junior Football Conference Super Bowl.

SKAMMER PLANS TO ATTEND RUTGERS

BILL TARUTIS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Dallas High School senior Sara Skammer, front center, signs a letter of intent to Rutgers University for gymnastics last week in the high school library. From left, seated, are Ruth Skammer, mother; Sara Skammer; Steve Skammer, father. Standing, Principal Jeff Shaffer and Athletic Director Nancy Roberts.

Harding will swim for Lehigh Un.

Brandon Harding, a Dallas High School swimmer, signed a letter of intent to continue his athletic and academic career at Division I Lehigh University where he will swim for Coach Rob Herb. He will be a student at the P.C. Rossin College of Engineering where he will major in Chemical Engineering.

Harding is a member of the undefeated and District II championship Mountaineer swim team. In three seasons, he is an eight-time district medalist, silver medalist in the butterfly, gold medal winner in the medley relay, varsity letterman, holder of two school records, two-event state qualifier and was named the 2010 Most Outstanding Male Swimmer of the Keystone State Games.

He was recently notified by the Wendy's National Heisman Scholarship Program that, in addition to being the Dallas High School Athletic winner, he was selected as one of 10 Pennsylvania state finalists.

Dallas High School swimmer Brandon Harding recently signed a letter of intent to attend Lehigh University. From left, seated, are Brian Harding, father; Brandon Harding, Dawn Harding, mother. Standing, Jeffrey Shaffer, principal of Dallas High School; Coach Romayne Mosier and Nancy Roberts, athletic director.

EVIL POP TARTS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

The Evil Pop Tarts soccer team recently won the U9 girls championship in the Back Mountain Youth Soccer League. Members of the team are, from left, first row, Madison Kaufer, Jensen Meade, Sydney Hornlein, Madison Pertl, Lyndsey Hornlein, Madison Sinoraki, Jenny Leonard. Second row, Emily Smith, Olivia Anderson, Melissa Leonard, Lauren Chapple, Shannon Barrett. Third row, coaches John Hornlein, KJ Barrett and Scott Pertl.

JUNIOR MOUNTS CHEERLEADERS WIN AT COMPETITIONS

The Dallas Junior Mounts C team cheerleaders recently won in their division at local competitions. At the Swoyersville competition, they placed third in both the "Hello Cheer" and "Dance Routine." At the WVVV FF League Competition, the squad placed second in the "Sideline Cheer," third in the "Hello Cheer" and fourth in the "Dance Routine." Members of the squad are, from left, first row, Katie Zimmerman, Maddy Dewees, Harley Sabol and Kaylee Albrecht. Second row, Connie Weaver, Bianca Cantando, Erin Garnett, Hayley Pitts, Alexis Lanza and Mia Karcutskie. Third row, Chloe Scott, Sammy Dixon, Kortney Harry, Victoria Dent, Hanna Shultz, Olivia Karcutskie and Nicole Jacobs.