Jewelry show benefits DHS lacrosse teams

Members of the boys and girls lacrosse teams at Dallas High School modeled jewelry during a fundraiser at the Appletree Terrace at Newberry Estates. The event was sponsored by the Dallas High School Lacrosse Booster Club.

Holy Redeemer students from the Back Mountain who have taken the Holy Redeemer High School placement test in the past are from left, seated, Geetika Khanna, Shavertown; Dante Zurenda, Dallas; Lucille Reilly, Shavertown; Allison Smith, Hunlock Creek. Standing, Cole Kebles, Dallas; Robert Musso, director of guidance; and James McDermott, director of religious formation.

Redeemer placement test is Dec. 11

Holy Redeemer High School will offer its annual placement test at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 11 at the school on South Pennsylvania Boulevard in Wilkes-Barre.

The test is intended for eighth-grade students currently attending private and public schools interested in attending Holy Redeemer as freshmen for the 2011-2012 school year.

Snow date will be December 18.

The test is used to determine course selection, academic placement and scholarship eligibility.

To register for the test or to obtain more information, call Robert Musso, director of guidance, at 829-2424, ext. 315.
