Travis DeBona (No. 4) advances the ball for Dallas.

Bob Saba (No. 1) handles the ball for the Dallas Mountaineers against Wyoming Area.

Mountaineer Shane Dunn (No. 22) charges through the Wyoming Area defense.

Mounts finish third

The Dallas High School basketball team overcame poor free-throw shooting and a late-rally attempt by host Wyoming Area to win the consolation game of the Angelo Schifano tournament on December 29 with a 52-47 victory.

The Mountaineer shot 33 percent from the foul line, hitting just 14 of 42 attempts. Steve Zapoticky paced the Mountaineers with 15 markers.

Winter Baseball Academy planned

Misericordia University will hold its annual Winter Baseball Academy from January 16 to February 13 in the Anderson Sports-Health Center. Designed to help players prepare the spring season, the five-week program features hitting and pitching sessions. Fee for the pitching or hitting clinic is $95. Players can attend both sessions for $180. For more information, contact MU head coach Pete Egbert at 674-6471.

Aerobics class donates

Ladies of the Misericordia University water aerobics class go into the holiday spirit by contributing enough coffee (3,415 cups) to help feed the men from VISION housed at Camp Orchard Hill for two weeks during the holidays. Throughout the year, the ladies have also contributed groceries to the Back Mountain Food Pantry and this year made a $200 donation for Christmas baskets. Making the presentation to Lisa Stull, Food Service Director at Camp Orchard Hill, are Judy Schoonover, left, and Caroline Williams, right.
