Continuing education students join honor society at Misericordia

Thirteen students inducted into Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society.

Thirteen adult learners at Misericordia University were inducted into the Alpha Sigma Lambda National Honor Society during a brunch and induction ceremony in Sandy and Marlene Insalaco Hall on campus.

Alpha Sigma Lambda is the honor society for continuing education students. It recognizes the achievements of adults who accomplish academic excellence while facing competing interests of home and work.

The honor society is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship and recognizes high scholastic achievement in an adult student's career. By doing so, it encourages many students to continue toward and earn associate and baccalaureate degrees.

Fellow Alpha Sigma Lambda inductees and Misericordia University alumni also attend the annual event on campus.
