

Wycallis Elementary students hold pajama drive

Students in kindergarten classes at Wycallis Elementary School held a pajama drive December 6-10. With the help of parents and teachers, students collected a total of 195 new pajamas for area children in need. The kindergartners collected the pajamas for Pajama Program, a nonprofit organization that provides pajamas and books to children who live in group homes, shelters, foster care and orphanages. Scholastic Books is matching the amount of pajamas donated with 195 books to the children in need. Wycallis Elementary also had a school-wide Pajama Party day on December 10 in support of the drive. Kindergarten teachers at Wycallis elementary are Mrs. Susan Crhall and Mrs. Flynn. Mrs. Kathleen McCarthy is principal.

LUZERNE COUNTY DA VISITS DALLAS MIDDLE SCHOOL

Luzerne County District Attorney Jackie Musto-Carroll presented her program, "2Smart4Trbl," to all students at Dallas Middle School recently. The proactive presentation allowed students in grades six, seven and eight to view a video that addressed common situations within the juvenile justice system. The video was followed by a question and answer session where Musto-Carroll discussed common misconceptions of students related to the law. Shown here, from left, are Matthew Barrett, assistant principal; Raelene Daring, guidance counselor; Musto-Carroll, Thomas Duffy, principal; and Mike Shevock, guidance counselor.
