20 YEARS AGO

Residents at the Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas, are enjoying two gingerbread houses on display at the center that were created and donated by Mrs. Jean Utter's third grade students at the Dallas Elementary School as a special holiday sharing project. Some of the students who participated in the project and visited the Meadows are: Jennifer Dymond, Jillson Bryant, Matthew Hoover and Matthew Wycallis.

Eighth grade students in homeroom 106 recently won the Acme Computer contest for the second marking period at the Dallas Middle School. All homerooms in the Dallas Middle School are conducting a drive for yellow cash register receipts. The goal is to earn enough receipts which can be turned in for a computer and software. Homeroom 106 was awarded with a candy treat and a merit certificate. Homeroom 106 students are: Greg Hodne, Jason Reynolds, Janeen Seitz, Jamie Bellezza, Amber Linsinbigler, Richard Sylvia, Raina Wensell, Shelby Jayne, Kristin Kosakowski, Dawn Moran, Adam Moleski, Bill Dierolf, Laura Seidel, Mike Viglone, Alicia Brown, Jeff Chopick and Alex Pawluk.

ONLY YESTERDAY

The Book Club of the Back Mountain Memorial Library met in the Children's Annex on Monday to elect and install new officers. Mrs. Fred Howell presided. Mrs. C.J. Anker was elected president; Mrs. Ben H. Edwards, vice president and program chairman. Mrs. Charles Frantz will serve as secretary and Mrs. Willard Seaman, treasurer.

30 YEARS AGO

"The transition went very smoothly; we're very satisfied," said Lake-Noxen Elementary School Principal Robert Kunkle Tuesday of the movement of 420 students and more than 20 teachers from two other buildings into the new elementary school in record time Friday. Lake-Noxen fills out the Lake-Lehman district's complement of buildings, replacing the old Lake Elementary (destroyed by fire) and the old Noxen Elementary (condemned by the state). Students who would have normally used those two buildings have instead been housed for two years in various other district buildings.

Two Dallas High School students have been selected to participate in the regional IV Pennsylvania Music Educators Association Festival to be held at Troy Area High School, Troy, in March. Selected were: Kim Moran, flute; and Lisa Mikulis, alto clarinet.

40 YEARS AGO

The fourth annual formal dinner-dance held jointly by the Dallas Senior and Junior Woman's Clubs is scheduled for March 20 at the Treadway Inn. Chairmen of the affair are Mrs. Errol Stewart, senior club, and Mrs. Donald Lloyd, junior club. Co-chairmen are Mrs. John Rogers and Mrs. J.

50 YEARS AGO

Brownie Troop 127, Idlewood, recently held its investiture in the Church house. Mrs. Richard Ide, co-leader, pinned membership stars on the following: second year stars, Gail Coal, Carol Exarhopoulas, Karen Jennings, Kathy Nulton, Debra Rinken and Susan Wasserott; third year stars, Kathy Spencer, Wilma Weaver, Patsy Patton. Girls absent but eligible for Brownie pins were Gayle Gentile, Marilyn and Carolyn Jennings.

Back Mountain will have a Presbyterian Church, a four-year dream of Presbyterians in the community who wish to establish a place of worship nearer than Kingston or Wilkes-Barre. There is no Presbyterian Church between Kingston and Tunkhannock. Interested residents will meet tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shuster in Trucksville. The move to establish a Presbyterian Church has the blessing of pastors of the city churches and of the Presbytery. No site has yet been selected.

Harold Lloyd, Shavertown,

is staying strictly in bed for three weeks, following an accident in which three or four ribs were broken and his lung bruised. The truck, a brand new panel Ford, is also laid up for repairs after skidding on the ice at the big curve leading to Luzerne.

A study of the members of the faculty of the Lake Township School at the present time indicates that of the 17 teachers, 13 have college certificates and a B.S. degree, four have master's Degrees, and four have two-year Normal School Diplomas. The state average with college preparation in 1949-1950 was 58 per-cent. The Lake faculty is above the state average in that 82 per-cent of the teachers have a college education.

70 YEARS AGO

At local Acme Super Markets, ranges sold for 25 cents a dozen; sirloin and porterhouse steaks were 29 cents a pound; two large loaves of bread cost 15 cents; and two boxes of Wheaties cereal cost 19 cents.

Miss Florence Ward of Alderson was elected president of the young Savers Class of the Alderson Church for the coming year at the home of Miss Ward, last Thursday evening. Other officers elected were Vice President, Carl Garinger; Secretary, Mildred Kitchen; and treasurer, Elizabeth Kitchen.

Information for "Only Yesterday" is taken from past issues of The Dallas Post which is 121 years old. The information is printed here exactly as it appeared in the newspaper years ago.
