South Paw Therapy Dog group recently made donations to the Blue Chip No Kill Animal Rescue from their holiday party raffle and fund raising held by Boscov's Friends Helping Friends.

Blue Chip No Kill Animal Rescue is located in the Dallas area and provides a humane way of giving an unwanted pet a second chance. These animals make great pets and some even make great therapy dogs.

South Paw Therapy group is a volunteer organization which visits many of the local nursing homes, group homes, schools and libraries or wherever else a therapy dog is needed through-

MaryAnn Selenski weds LCpl. Dennis Ellis in Oct.

MaryAnn Selenski and LCpl. Dennis Alan Ellis were united in marriage on October 30, 2010 at Dr. Edwards Congregation Memorial Church in Edwarsville.

The bride is the daughter of Ronald T. Selenski Sr., of Dallas, and the late Ruth Ann Selenski. The groom is the son of Dr. John and Sharon Ellis, of Shavertown.

The bride chose her sister, Ruth Ann Selenski, as her maid of honor and her daughters, Morgan and Adrianna, as the flowergirls.

The groom chose his best friend, Cpl. Frank Oatridge, as his best man, and his cousin, Allan Williams, as the ring bearer.

Scriptural readings were presented by Jackie Ellis, brother of the groom; and Kaitlyn Selenski, sister of the bride.

MaryAnn is a graduate of Dallas High School and earned an Associate Degree in Nursing from LCCC. She is presently employed at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital as a critical care registered nurse.

Dennis is a graduate of Dallas High School. He attended the Universal Technical Institute in Exton where he received a certification in Automotive and Diesel Mechanics. He is currently serving active duty for the United States Marine Corps as a Motor Transport Mechanic.

Wedding celebrations were held at the Café in Wilkes-Barre.

Harveys Lake EAC has two positions open for residents

The Harveys Lake Environmental Advisory committee (EAC) currently has two board positions open to residents of the borough.

Anyone interested in serving should contact Denise Sult at 639-1042 by January 31.

EAC is an officially constituted municipal board created to advise the borough of Harveys Lake on environmental issues and policies.

The council consists of six members who serve without compensation and who are appointed by the Harveys Lake Borough Council.

EAC meets at 7 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month in the Harveys Lake General Municipal Authority building.

Meetings are open to the public.
